

ERIC CHURCHWELL works on one of the cars at his shop in Bird City. Times staff photo by Casey McCormick

Local business closes the doors after several years in Bird City

By Casey McCormick

A local business is closing its doors after 15 years. Downtown Repairs and Auto Sales began serving Bird City in 1989.

"It's been an enjoyable 15 years," said owner and operator Eric Churchwell, "I've enjoyed working with the people."

Mr. Churchwell began automotive repair work in 1989 with the Zimbleman Motor Company in St. Francis. He began Downtown Repairs in the old Johnson Chevy building across from his current location on Bird Avenue.

In 1991, the business moved to being used for storage.

Downtown Repair expanded in 1998 to include auto sale, display- their location in Colby, I'll have ing used cars on the lot on the west side of Bird Avenue.

City and his family does not plan hicles." on moving.

teach in Benkelman and I only Mr. Churchwell feels that the last have a 40 minute commute to Goodland," said Mr. Churchwell, Cheylin."

where it is now. The structure had Churchwell will remain in the aubeen owned by the co-op and was tomotive business, going into a partnership called Motor Town. "Motor Town will still have Goodland," said Mr. Churchwell, "Between the two locations, we'll Mr. Churchwell grew up in Bird have a large selection of ve-

Although he regrets shutting "My wife, Janice, will still down business in his hometown, 15 years have been very positive. "The people of this community

Churchwell, "These people are

Obituary

Margaret Peters March 17, 1929 - July 2, 2004

Margaret Eleanor Antholz was born March 17, 1929, at Stratton, Neb., to William Antholz and

She was active in church by teach-ganization. ing Sunday School, Vacation Bible school Luther League. Lutheran Church in Bird City. They Guild until her health failed. started their married life farming

Lutheran Church in Bird City. She School for several years. She was attended high school in Bird City. also involved in the Ladies Aid or-

In 1970, she and Raymond be-School, and was a member of high came members of Calvary Lutheran Church in Wray, Colo. She helped Margaret married Raymond Pe- with teaching at Calvary Lutheran, ters on Sept. 12, 1950, at St. John where she was involved with Altar She is survived by her husband, Raymond; son, Ralph and his wife, and ranching in the Armel area. Susan, and their children, Jason, They have lived there ever since. Margaret always loved rural life. Curtis and Tanya, all of Albuquer-She was ever active in all aspects of que, N.M., son, Paul and his sons, Derek and Sean of Idalia; brother, the farm and ranch life. Margaret loved her flowers, garden and pets. Carl Antholz and wife, Sandra of Margaret and Raymond were McDonald; sister, Elsie and husmembers of Trinity Lutheran band, Duane Menken of Fort Morgan, Colo., and many nieces and nephew and many relatives and close friends.

McDonald News By Vera Kacirek

Death notice

Margaret Peters died at her home in Idalia, Colo., on Friday evening. Margaret was a sister of C.W. Antholz and grew up on a farm north of McDonald. She had suffered a long illness. Funeral services were Wednesday, July 7, at the Calvary Lutheran Church in Wray, Colo.

Birthday

Kent and Joan Banister entertained with a Sunday dinner honoring the birthdays of Amelia Banister and Karlvne Atchison. Guests and Rick from Battle Creek, Mich., Helen Sykes and Sharon and Curtis Siebenthal of Morrison, Colo.; Alvin and Marie Holzworth, Lanny DeGood from St. Francis; Tammi and Wade Carmichael and children from Bird City; Marian Howland, George and Kathy Banister and family and Jim Banister.

In the afternoon they all attended the birthday open house at the senior center for Amelia and Vivian Curry. About 125 friends and family attended the birthday party for the two ladies who had Fourth of July birthdays.

The tables, decorated by Phyllis Wingfield, were gaily decorated in a patriotic theme. Each lady had a big basket of cards to take home and enjoy, and an arrangement of roses from the McDonald Garden Lewis visited in Grand Junction, Club.

Open house

The McDonald Fire Department and the emergency medical technicians (EMT's) will hold an open house on Sunday, July 11, starting at 5 p.m. with a barbecue and potluck meal in the he new fire building.

Following the meal there will be a tour of the new famility and demonstrations on the sue of the new fire equipment. The men are very pleased with the new building and the new equipment that was secured through a grant. They want to share with the people of this community.

Following the demonstrations McDonald Area Development members will have an ice cream social. Bring lawn chairs as setting is limited in the new building. Enjoy the time to visit with your friends.

Livestock judging camp

Josh Johnson attended the Champion Livestock Judging Camp from June 19 to June 21 at Kansas State University. The camp was conducted by Dr. Scott Schaake, coach of five consecutive National Collegiate Championships.

This camp was designed for 4-

On Friday Amelia Banister and Karlyne Atchison visited Viola ter, the grandsons and great-Jones and Irene Kehlbeck at the grandchildren. On Sunday they Good Samaritan Home in St. Francis.

Leila Loker was a Saturday afternoon visitor of Myrtle Hazuka.

After Sunday church services Tunney and Leila Loker were visitors of Dennis and Lila Howard and their guests, Cynthia Howard and Ryan Seweirt of Colby.

were Lucille and Albert Zimbelman States Navy has completed his four years in the Navy and arrived home on Tuesday. Lori Denny and Lakin and Shalyn Harris were visitors from Wednesday to Saturday. On Sunday Greg and Cheryl Wilkinson entertained with a Sunday dinner in Ryan's honor. Guests were Jamie and ily. Shalyn Harris, Shawn Wilkinson, Patty Koloute and Kenny and Phyllis Wilkinson.

R.J. and Susie Sabatka entertained on Sunday evening with a barbecue to celebrate the Fourth of July holiday and the July birthdays. Birthdays acknowledged were Norman Davis, David Kacirek and Kasey Sabatka. Guests for the evening were Dave and Becky Kacirek, Nathan.

On Friday Vance and Betty Michelle Sabatka.

Colo., with their daughter, Claudia and husband, Roger Fosattended the wedding anniversary of Don and Rena Riggle in Grand Junction.

Vance and Betty Lewis also visited with Lenora Spicka in Atwood this past week.

On July 3, Vance and Betty Lewis attended the Merklin family reunion in McCook.

Jerry and Betty Knapp were Ryan Wilkinson of the United Saturday supper guests of Zelda Knapp.

Kenny and Phyllis Wilkinson were Sunday evening guests of Larry and Mary Fahrenbruch and family in Atwood. On Monday morning the Wilkinsons were visitors in the Kacirek home to visit with the Dave Kacirek fam-

Dave and Becky Kacirek and family returned home to Weston, Mo., on Tuesday after spending the weekend with Laddie and Vera Kacirek.

Kenny and Phyllis Wilkinson attended the funeral of Gwen Johnson in McCook on Tuesday.

On Wednesday Ray and Marlene Johnson visited in Colby with Brandon and Samantha Sabatka and new baby girl, Jalyn

Surprise visitor returns to McDonald

Owen Wingfield had a surprise visitor last week.

Owen saw a car with a Colorado tag on it, slowly driving down the street. Later Mrs. Wingfield noticed it was parked down the street and a man was looking around and taking pictures of houses. Later visited about an hour recalling old other people in town told Mr. Wingfield they also noticed the car.

About 8 a.m. Mr. Wingfield went outside and the man was parked across the street. He came over and asked if he was Owen as he had seen the sign on the house.

He indicated "you probably do not recognize me". I lived across the street from you, we played to- as he needed to get back to Dengether and went to school together.'

He said he was Eugene Heer and his family lived in the house About 6:30 in the morning that Dorothy Headrick now owns. The Marion Heer family left McDonald in 1936 when Eugene was 12 years old. He has not been back in the 68 years.

Mr. Wingfield and Mr. Heer friends, events that happened and buildings in town. The first thing Mr. Heer noticed when he arrived in McDonald was the old elevators and the McDonald Equity office were gone. Also the several business buildings, houses, church, and other buildings that were gone.

He was not able to stay longer ver to take a plane to Los Angeles where he lives.

Brenda, Kimber and McKenzie Barbra Krantz of McDonald went Weiser spent the weekend with with her. They visited Mike and Amy Waters and family in Haviland, her brother Bruce and wife June Ochsner in Wichita and Matt and Marty Goltl and twins. On Saturday, Bethel Goltl atnoon at the Lynn and Rita Officer tended her cousin, Loraine Fenner's funeral in Goodland. Eunice Office and Ratha Lee Saturday evening, Lavern and Bethel Goltl, and Elaine Johnson attended the interment of Mrs. Melvi Arkle of Yoke, Neb., in the Additional Sunday dinner Atwood Cemetery. Irene Kehlbeck fell this past week and broke her leg. She spent Tuesday through Friday in the McCook Hospital. She is back at Curtis and Kaylynn Officer the home in St. Francis doing went home with Melissa and well.

"And the kids are just fine at made it a success," said Mr. As for the future, Mr. very loyal to local business."

Louise nee Holle Antholz Peters of McDonald, Kan. Margaret was baptized on the 28th of April, 1929, at St. John Lutheran Church in Bird City. Margaret attended grade school in a one-room schoolhouse a mile north of her childhood home on a farm north of McDonald. She was confirmed in her Christian ret taught Sunday School and was faith on May 24, 1942, at St. John Superintendent for the Sunday County rodeo queen and princess contest planned Queen and Princess contest is now taking entries for the contest on Friday, July 30. Queens ages 17-23, princess, 14-16, and junior princesses ages, 10-13, by July 1 are eligible. Constestants must also be a resident of northwest Kansas. Application deadline is Friday, July and modeling. A trophy saddle will tel.net.

The Thomas County Rodeo be awarded to the queen along with belt buckles for the queen and princesses. Prizes will also be awarded for horsemanship, ticket sales and speech and modeling.

Church in St. Francis where Marga-

The 2004 Thomas County Rodeo Queen and Princess will be crowned on Tuesday, Aug. 3 at the PRCA Rodeo.

For information, questions or The contestants will be judged in entry forms, call Marie Skolout at horsemanship, interview, speech (785) 586-2228 or email june@st-

Creative Movements Gymnastics PEnrollment and Annual Meeting

> Tuesday, July 13 • 5:30 p.m. Sacred Heart Gym • Atwood, KS

New students level of ability will be assessed for class placement. Waiting list possible. New leotards for sale this day.

Margaret died on July 2, 2004, at the age of 75 years, three months and 15 days.

Funeral services were held at the Calvary Lutheran Church in Wray on Wednesday, July 7 at 10 a.m. with Reverend Richard Pierson officiating. Interment was in the St. Francis Cemetery in St. Francis.

Spellman-Schmidt Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

H and FFA members, ages 14 to 18, who are seriously interested in enhancing their livestock judging and oral communication skills.

Students attending were from Illinois, Oklahoma, Colorado and Kansas. Class were conducted in Weber Hall/Arena. Campers were housed in Moore Hall and meals were eaten at the "Derb" with the exception of Sunday evening when an area hog producer hosted the group for pork burgers. The rest of the evening was spent at the Student Union playing pool, arcade game and bowling. Over the three days, a lot of classes were judged, a lot of reasons were given and a lot was learned. Plans are to attend again next year.

Josh is a member of the Cheylin FFA chapter and the Beardsley Beavers 4-H Club. His parents are Josh and Lisa Johnson of Henry and Eldean Cahoj. Henry golfed in a tournament in Alma, Neb.

Mark and Dawn Officer and children arrived Thursday afterhome.

Loker were frequent visitors at the Lynn and Rita Officer home this past week.

guests of Lynn and Rita Officer were Melissa and Randy Regier and family, Eunice office and Ratha Lee Loker.

Randy and children. They will be staying with them for a few days.

Bethel Goltl was in Wichita Tuesday through Thursday.

Gram's Rocking Chair Daycare

| Published in The Saint Francis Herald, St. Francis, Kansas, and The Bird City | | | | |
|---|--------------|--------------|--------------|---------------|
| Times, Bird City, Kansas, Thursday, July 8, 2004. | | | | 28 |
| QUARTLY FINANCIAL REPORT | | | | |
| ENDING JUNE, 2004 | | | | |
| | 4/1/2004 | | | 6/30/2004 |
| | BALANCE | EXPENDITURES | RECEIPTS | BALANCE |
| General | $445,977.57 | $346,449.89 | $426,510.20 | $526,037.88 |
| Road & Bridge | $319,593.16 | $209,647.03 | $228,616.67 | $338,562.80 |
| Bridge Building | $32,423.23 | $21,370.88 | $2,500.87 | $13,553,22 |
| Noxious Weed | $42,107.75 | $17,347.42 | $6,161.31 | $30,921.64 |
| Noxious Weed Special | $13,841.70 | $0.00 | $0.00 | $13,841.70 |
| Solid Waste | $1,788.17 | $1,788.17 | $0.00 | $0.00 |
| Rural Fire | $30,791.09 | $14,285.82 | $12,526,71 | $29.031.98 |
| Hospital | $30,370.38 | $267,303.26 | $81,209.30 | -$155,723,58 |
| Special Fire Equipment | $47,350.78 | $0.00 | $0.00 | $47,350.78 |
| Treasurer's Special | $6,306.87 | $258.99 | $4,904.75 | $10,952.63 |
| Attorney Fund | $3,250.63 | $0.00 | $693.04 | $3,943.67 |
| TOTAL ALL FUNDS | $973,801.33 | $878,451.46 | $763,122.85 | $858.472.72 |

detailed statement of expenditures is available for public inspection at the county clerk's office opies of such statement shall be available upon request. K.S.A. 19-228

SEAL

Chevenne County Clerk

McDonald. St. Francis

Good Samaritan Village ^C Career Opportunity for a LICENSED Social Worker

Essential Job Functions: The successful candidate will be responsible to perform the following according to Good Samaritan mission, facility standards, procedures and individualized resident care plans:

Community Relations, Resident Admission, Transfer and Discharge, Resident/Family Care, Resident Rights, Communication of all necessary documentation related to the social well-being of our residents, Safety Consideration in the work place, Infection Control understanding within the work place, and other Basic Responsibilities involving compliance with policies of Attendance, Personal/Hygiene/Appearance, Time Management, Training/ Meetings, Continuous Quality Improvement, Technology Skills and Professional Licensure/Standards, and perform other related duties as assigned.

All qualified and interested candidates should send a Professional Profile or Resume to the facility administrator, Paul Rainbolt, at P.O. Box 1140, St. Francis, KS 67756-1140.

The Good Samaritan Village is an equal opportunity employer and provides ser vices to qualified individuals without regard to race, color, sex, age, national or gin, religion or disability

"Equal Employment Opportunity Employer — M/F/Vet./Handicap