

2004 Antique Engine and Thresher Show —

THE 51st TRI-STATE ANTIQUE ENGINE & THRESHER ASSOCIATION SHOW: (clockwise from top left) The Carl Bergman family traveled from Aspen, Colo. to show-off their steam calliope. The Brubaker men, Robert, Gary and Jacob (not shown) operate their massive steam engine in the parade. Hollis DaPron helps a young visitor learn how to do laundry the old-fashioned way. The 2004 Thresher Queen, Irene Kehlbeck, is escorted to the stage by her grandson, Royce Kehlbeck. Three men and a boy enjoy an afternoon visit around a bulldozer at the Thresher Show Grounds.

Times staff photos by Karen Krien and Casey McCormick