Flea Market scheduled during car show on Saturday

By Karen Krien

Over 150 vintage and antique vehicles will be on display around Sawhill Park, downtown St. Francis, on Saturday. "Saturday in the Park" is the sixth car show held by the Cheyenne County Cruiser's organization.

Scott Schultz, one of the coordinators of the show, reported that people with show cars will be coming from surrounding states and as far as Culvere, Tenn. Last year, there were only a few of the British Triump cars on display but, this year, a number of the Triump Club members from the Colorado Springs and Denver area, have already registered.

As of Monday, over 60 show cars owners had pre-registered and, of those numbers, 25 are new to the show.

"We are looking for a really good show this year," he said.

There will be antiques, classics and new models on display including a unique "chop" 1949 Mercury.

Other activities in St. Francis on Saturday besides the car show will be a flea market.

Carol Northrup has designated her lot on the 300 block of South Benton as the site of the market. The market will open at 8 a.m. and people are planning to close around 2 p.m. unless the demand is there. There have already been a number of people showing interest in bringing items and more are welcome.

"We want anyone who has things to sell to come set up a booth," Mrs. Northrup said.

There is no charge for the space. The seller needs to bring his/her own table and items to sell.

"All we ask is that they take everything that doesn't sell back with them," Mrs. Northrup said.

There will be furniture, household items, old iron pieces, yard art, pottery, antiques, primitives, "stuff," and just a lot of everything.

Jo Hagney and Laura Reeser, Prairie House Herb, will be serving cinnamon rolls to early risers and later a meal of hamburgers, hot dogs, chips and dessert as well as selling bedding plants, herbs, jams and jellies.

Other sellers are:

- Linfred Oster, who will be selling bedding plants.

- Chuck Dickson, Oakley, will have wheels

- Donna Northrup, owner of Country Collage Antiques, will have a variety of items.

- Kenny Roberson said he is bringing bikes and other stuff

- Howard Clark will have some unique items.

- Glenn and Vicki Schliep have a variety of things to sell.

- Marlin and Kim Queen will have items from their business, Strawberry Wellness, located in Wray.
