

Tough game for Cheylin on their Homecoming

Cheylin 6, Dundy County 55

A lack of starting players proved a tough break for the Cheylin Cougars for their Homecoming game against the Dundy County Tigers.

"Illness and injury had many young players forced into key roles against a tough team." Coach Max Keltz said. "Hopefully this week everyone will be back on top and we can get the team together again."

Team passing: four of 10 for 44 yards and one touchdown. Team rushing: 23 of 65 for 65 yards for a total of 109 yards.

Rushing: Lamar Adams, eight for 32 yards, Sam Hengen, nine for 23 yards. Passing: S. Hengen three of eight for 24 yards and one touchdown.

Receiving: Lincoln Pochop; one for 10 yards and one touchdown, Lucius White; one for 20 yards.

Tackles; L. White 11, Pochop seven, L. Adams five.

This week the Cougars travel to Tribune on Friday, Sept. 22.

Club Clips

McDonald Town and Country Garden Club

The McDonald Town and Country Garden Club met on Wednesday, Sept. 13 at the home of Marlene Johnson, with Joan Tongish as co-hostess.

There were 10 members present to answer the roll call with "Name A Perennial Planted This Year". Joan Tongish opened the meeting and Margie Hubbard read a lovely poem about "September". The minutes and treasurer's report were accepted as read. Kay Miller reported on the McDonald Area Development meeting. A card was signed by all for the 60th anniversary of Russell and Margaret Rhodes.

The date of October 20 was announced for the North District meeting in Jewell. Reservations must be in by Oct. 12. At the Oct. meeting rides to Jewell will be discussed.

Margie Hubbard gave the lesson on "Flower Pounding". Margie brought a variety of flowers and the fabric. Member had only to bring a hammer for pounding to make a pretty floral design. Everyone was amazed at how easy it was to transfer a design to the fabric.

Marlene Johnson's arrangement "The Last Tribute" featured Mexican sunflowers and yellow mums with black-seeded millet stalks for height, arranged in a brown glass bowl. It was very pretty.

The next meeting will be Oct. 11 at the home of Betty Binning in Atwood with Margaret Rhodes as co-hostess.

Bird City Community Club

Bird City Community Club met Sept. 11, at the Methodist fellowship hall. Several topics were discussed. The Calendar Committee reported that the 2007 community birthday calendar is well under way. Hopefully everyone in the community has been contacted for dates and pre-ordering information, but time is still available to be placed on the calendar.

Each month will feature several local businesses at no cost provided follow-up by the business has been made. Calendars will be available Dec. 1. Stan Dorsch, Gary Leach, Jane Brubaker, Barbara Waters and Marlene Young are on the Calendar Committee.

McDonald News By Vera Kacirek

The first attempt of the Highway 36 "Garage Sales" could be considered a success. They brought a lot of interested people into McDonald. Visitors from Iowa, Missouri, Ohio, Illinois, Colorado, and Nebraska as well as Kansas stopped to look over the "treasures." Most people were looking for antiques, but they did find some "treasures." With the garage sales and the Hartman auction on Saturday, it was the most traffic in McDonald since the 1988 Centennial.

Cheylin held their Homecoming events on Thursday and Friday evenings. On Thursday the two local banks provided a supper at the school, followed by the Homecoming activities and crowning of the King and Queen. Lucius White is the 2006 King, and Jessica Marshall was crowned 2006 Queen.

On Friday evening the activities continued at the football field with a supper served by the Booster Club, the presentation of the 2006 Royalty and the football game with Dundy County.

Last Monday evening, Estel and Peggy Haning of Greely, Colo., were overnight guests of Bill and Lois Schoff. Dean Miesner and Rose Gordon were also Monday afternoon visitors. On Tuesday afternoon, the Hanings were visitors of Myra Miller and Norman and Iris McIntosh.

On Thursday Betty Knapp stayed with her grandson, L. J. Purvis and with Katie Jo after school. Travis Knapp of Hutchinson came this weekend to help his dad, Jerry Knapp, with wheat drilling.

John Allman of the Lake of the Ozarks was a weekend guest of Owen and Phyllis Wingfield. On Sunday he accompanied the Wingfields to Hoxie to a concert. Joan Tongish and Eleanor Swihart also accompanied the Wingfields.

Kasey and Jennifer Sabatka brought Tuesday evening supper to Laddie and Vera Kacirek. Other guests were R.J. and Susie Sabatka.

Thad Lewis of Santa Maria, Calif., and Claudia Foster of Grand Junction, Colo., were weekend guests of their mother, Betty Lewis.

R. J. and Susie Sabatka brought Sunday dinner and shared it with Laddie and Vera Kacirek. Other Sunday visitors were Kenny and Phyllis Wilkinson, Bud and Helen Frisbie, and A.B. and Judy Fisher.

Kenny and Phyllis Wilkinson attended the Cheylin Homecoming events in Bird City on Thursday and Friday evenings.

Shalyn Harris of McCook, Neb., was a Tuesday guest of her grandparents, Greg and Cheryl Wilkinson.
