Fund raiser held at local bowling alley

On March 23, Cheyenne Bowl in St. Francis hosted the annual Cheyenne County Bowl For Kids Sake sponsored by the Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Cheyenne County.

Students from Cheylin and St. Francis schools got together and participated in the fund raiser bowling event to collect money from donors to be given to the program.

In addition, prizes were awarded to the two top bowlers that brought in the most collected money to the event.

The winner of the most collected money was Dakota Morris of St. Francis with $175 raised and collected. He was awarded a Wii game system donated by Western State Bank.

Second place was Cassie Rucker of Bird City with $100 raised, and she was awarded with an iPod Nano along with a $25 iTunes gift card donated by Big Brothers/Big Sister.

On April 8, Wendy Wellmann, executive director Big Brothers

Big Sisters of Sherman, Cheyenne, Wallace and Logan counties, visited each winners classroom and presented the prizes.

"The Bowl For Kids Sake is the largest fund raiser we put on during the year," said Mrs. Wellmann. "And this year was a great year."
