

Birthday plans set

Margaret Shay will turn 95 on April 29. Her family is requesting that everyone helps her celebrate by sending a card or note.

Margaret was born to John and Ruby Indorf in 1915 in Cheyenne County. She was the second of six girls. Margaret graduated from St. Francis High School in 1933 and married Ronald Shay, of Bird City, in 1935.

Margaret has two children, Rodney Shay and Cynthia Deines; daughter-in-law, Kay Shay, and son-in-law, Ed Deines; five grandchildren; 15 great-grandchildren; and one great-great grandchild. Margaret also has four living sisters and many nieces, nephews and friends.

4-H'ers attend monthly meetings

March meeting

On March 4, the Go-Getters held their monthly meeting. Roll call was answered to the question, "What is your favorite animal?" There were seven members, three guests, and 11 adults present.

The members talked about the Favorite Food Show event in the upcoming Cheyenne County Club day. Nina Isely, leader, gave members some pointers on how to set up their food table.

Max Keltz, Cheylin FFA leader, gave a video presentation on livestock judging. Following the video, Mr. Keltz asked the members questions and all were answered.

Ivan Kemp will be giving an Origami presentation at the April meeting.

Meeting adjourned.

Fifth graders have exciting day on April 6

By Thomas Frisbie
Cheylin fifth grade

April 6, was the busiest and most exciting day for the Cheylin fifth graders. The class was waiting in their class room for the green light to head down to the red carpet. Thomas Frisbie, fifth grader, was scared that he had forgotten something for his costume, but luckily his mom did not.

The sixth grade bodyguards Pedro Gutierrez, Devon Janicke, Ivan Kemp, Reece Leonard, and Derek Vandike came up, and then the class went down the hallway next to the red carpet doors.

The students, dressed in Civil War costumes, then went one-by-one into the room: Regina Lee as Bell Boyd, Jacky Chacon as Harriet Beecher Stowe, Arais Castillo as Rose O' Neal Greenhow, Bergan Bock as Harriet Tubman, Kevin Estrada as Robert E. Lee, Thomas Frisbie as Jefferson Davis, C.J.

Antholz as Ulysses S. Grant, and Jorge Gonzalez as Thomas "Stonewall" Jackson.

After the program, each of the actors went to a table and kids from the other grades came to get autographs. There were so many kids, and after 30 minutes of being pelted with kids, the actors went upstairs to take the costumes off and get ready to go home.

Elsa Craig Burr attended the Civil War Red Carpet program and said they dressed up roles as famous Civil War people. The students did research on war generals and heroes and dressed in costumes they thought represented their role.

"They were like celebrities. They walked out on a red carpet and pictures were taken. The heroes signed their autographs and provided information on their character," said Elsa.

McDonald Area Development

McDonald Area Development met on Wednesday, April 7, with 10 members present.

A report was given on the Easter Egg Hunt. There was a good turnout of children. Thirty kids and their parents enjoyed the hunt and found lots of eggs. The kids like the wooden toys that Bill Schaff had donated.

Ray, Marlene and Lois attended the county commissioners meeting and were given $500 to be used for the Highway 36 park. Ray and Marlene raked up the pine cones in the park. Ray said the shelter house and the playground equipment all need paint.

There was a discussion on how to recognize the two ladies who will be celebrating their 100th birthday this summer. It was suggested that each one be given a plant. Also to talk to the family to see what they want done.

Bill Schaff said he will not hold a scarecrow contest this year. It was suggested to have a funny hat contest at the Ice Cram Social. This will be decided later. Jan Curtin suggested that we hold a Halloween pumpkin decorating contest.

McDonald Area Development members are no longer able to do the Clean-Up Days. Bill will talk to the council members, and see if they are willing to take this over.

Kay Miller asked everyone to be thinking about talent number for the Ice Cream Social.

The meeting was adjourned.
