Obituary

Rodney Lewis Partch June 13, 1921 - Sept. 8, 2011

born June 13, 1921 in Bird City, as a field agronomist, he and Bet-Kan. He died on Sept. 8, 2011, in Benkelman, Neb.

Rodney was the only child of Faye Partch and Belle Howell Partch. He attended school in Bird City from grade one through his senior year.

Rodney helped his father at the grocery store in Bird City and was active in the Boy Scouts. He always proudly remembered being a member of the mile track relay team his senior year, losing only one race - the finals at the state track meet.

After graduating from high school, Rodney attended Kansas State College of Agriculture, later known as Kansas State University. While at K-State, he worked in the dairy barns and agronomy

He played basketball for the of the Legends Club. He was active in the Sigma Nu Fraternity and graduated from K-State in 1944.

Rodney married Elizabeth (Bette) Petersen on Sept. 6, 1944, in Pasadena, Calif. They returned to Hoxie where he was the county extension agent.

After working in Sheridan, Decatur and Mitchell counties as an Rodney Lewis Partch, 90, was agricultural agent and for K-State te moved to Bird City where he joined his father in farming.

> He was a member of the Immanuel United Methodist Church in Bird City and taught Sunday school for many years. He enjoyed yard work and flowers, woodworking, bird watching, checking his fields and K-State Rodney and Bette had two children, Sue and Ted. He enjoyed attending their school activities.

Rodney and Bette organized the Happy Larks 4-H Club southwest of Bird City. He served as president of the Bird City Board of Education and on the board of directors for the Federal Land

In 2003, Ted and Rodney were selected as the State Wheat Quality Champions at the Kansas Cemetery. Arrangements were by Wildcats and became a member State Fair and had their picture Knodel Funeral Home, St. Frantaken with then-Governor Kath- cis.

Rodney was preceded in death by his parents and wife, Bette, who died in July 2009.

Survivors include Sue and her husband, Glenn, of Salina, and Ted and his wife, Carol, of Bird City; grandchildren, Shelly and Tim Blake of Shawnee, Jill and Drew Paugh of Ellis, Randy and Katie Partch of Benkelman, Kevin Partch of Kearney, Neb., and two great-grandchildren, Cooper Paugh and baby boy Blake (due anytime).

Funeral services were held Sept. 10 at Immanuel United Methodist Church, Bird City, with Rev. Tom Bailey officiating. Casket bearers were Glenn Laubhan, Drew Paugh, Kevin Partch, Randy Partch, Steve Busse and Tony Walden.

Burial was in the Bird City
