Lady Cougars lose to Dighton

By Nathan Fiala
nfiala@nwkansas.com

The Lady Cougars traveled to Dighton last Friday to play the Hornets. The game started out pretty close with the first quarter ending tied up 10 all. Dighton pulled ahead after that and won the game 51-34.

"We had a really rough night at Dighton," Coach Greg Jones said. "Dighton couldn't miss a shot and we had trouble putting it in the hoop. The test will be to see if the girls can put this game behind us and come out strong in league tournament play."

Stats for the Ladies were Stephanie Busse with 14 points and nine rebounds, Marlene Dehn with six points and one rebound, Shayla Hubbard with six points and one rebound, Forrest Burr with three points and one rebound, Susannah Jones with three points and Dani Possamei with two points and two rebounds.

THE JUNIOR VARSITY Cougars squared off against Dighton last Friday. Cougars Michael Barnett, Connor Hazuka and Eddie Frisbie defend against the Hornet offense.

The Monsanto Fund is offering grants to local schools. To obtain the grant, qualifying producers must nominate their school of choice. Nomination forms are available through Frontier Ag, Bird City. Frontier Ag encourages all producers to participate. See Ray Magnani to nominate your school today.
