

Junior high girls' basketball lose to Huskies and Eagles

By Dan Carson

On Monday, Dec. 12, the Cheylin Junior High girls' basketball team traveled to Almena to take on the Northern Valley Huskies. In the B-game, Cheylin was down at halftime 12-2 and lost the game 22-2. Haleigh Rucker scored two points. Rachel Keltz had three rebounds and Amber Manners had two rebounds and two steals. It was a tough game and we couldn't just seem to get our offense going.

In the A-team game, it was a similar situation in scoring. At halftime, Northern Valley led 23-9 and the final score was 15-43. Again in the second game, as in the first, we just could not get the basketball to fall. The A-team shot eight percent from the field. Elizabeth Keltz scored five points and had nine rebounds and two blocked shots. Danae Magnani scored four points and had five rebounds. Kelsey Miller also had four points with two rebounds. Diana Garcia had two points with four rebounds. Elsa Craig Burr grabbed six rebounds with two steals and Amber Manners had two rebounds. It was a difficult evening of basketball because so many shots would ring around the rim, but not go in. The ladies played well and continued to work hard throughout the whole game, but we just came up short.

vs. Hitchcock County

On Tuesday, Dec. 13, the Hitchcock County Eagles came to McDonald to take on the Lady Cougars. The B-team had an exciting game. The Eagles were only able to play two quarters, because of lack of girls. The Cougars won at halftime 14-7. Then, so we could play a full game, the Eagles C-team boys played two quarters against our B-team girls. The Cougars scored first, but in the end the boys outscored the Lady Cougars 9-2. Haleigh Rucker led the Cougars with six points and had two rebounds. Amber Manners scored four points and had four rebounds. Alex Hazuka scored two points with two rebounds. Rachel Keltz had four rebounds and two steals while Zayra Lara had three rebounds. Stephanie Alvarado and Gracie Glass both had two rebounds. The Lady Cougars really played hard and enjoyed the game.

In the A-team game, Cheylin jumped off to a quick start leading after the first quarter 18-1. By halftime, the score was 27-8. The final score was 39-15. The press looked really good. It was great to see a very strong win for the Cougars. Danae Magnani scored 15 points for the Cougars and had four rebounds and three steals. Diana Garcia added 13 points with three rebounds, seven steals and two assists. Kelsey Miller scored five points and had four rebounds and three steals. Elsa Craig Burr, Haleigh Rucker and Rachel Keltz all scored two points. Elsa Craig had three rebounds, while Haleigh had two steals, and Rachel had three rebounds. Stephanie Alvarado had four steals and Alex Hazuka had three rebounds with two assists. Amber Manners finished the game with two steals. It was a great game that so many of the ladies added their part for the win.

McDonald News

Norm Davis became established in our community a number of years ago. In remembering Norm, he was a very caring, supportive gentleman, and always willing to help. The city of McDonald became more progressive under Norm's mayoral leadership and we will miss him. Sympathy is extended to his wife Tess, and the entire family. You are in our prayers.

Last Saturday, Kent Banister and Karlyne Atchison attended the memorial service for Lavina Thompson in Brighton, Colo.

Karlyne Atchison's son, James Atchison of Arlington, Texas, was a Monday through Friday guest of his mother. While here, he called on his Grandma Amelia Banister at the home in Atwood. Karlyne Atchison called on Rita Officer Friday afternoon.

Sunday evening, family and friends met at the home of Kenneth and Phyllis Wilkinson for a homemade pizza party, celebrating January birthdays and anniversaries. Guests were Greg and Cheryl Wilkinson, Bob and Helen Johnson, Rod and Lisa Johnson, Josh and Sammie Johnson, Shaun Wilkinson, and Ryan Wilkinson.

Ron Bell was a Saturday and Sunday visitor of Myra Miller at the hospital. Myra is now in Villa Manor Rehab Center, 7950 West Mississippi Ave. Lakewood, CO. 80226.

Lady Cougars beaten by Titans

By Nathan Fiala
nfiala@nwkans.com

The Cheylin Lady Cougars faced the Triplains/ Brewster Titans on Tuesday, Jan. 10. Cheylin lost the game 41-31.

"We held Triplains-Brewster to 12 points in the first half but our shooting slump continued and we only scored 11 points in the first half," Coach Greg Jones said. "We had trouble getting back on defense in the second half and let it get away from us. We are determined to keep fighting and find a way to win."

Stats for Cheylin were Marlene Dehn with eight points and seven rebounds, Shayla Hubbard with seven points and seven rebounds, Stephanie Busse with six points and six rebounds, Allie Frisbie with four points and four rebounds, Forrest Burr with four points and seven rebounds and Kalin Richey with two points and one rebound.
