Junior high girls play in tournament

By Dan Carson

On Saturday, Feb. 11, the Cheylin Junior High Lady Cougars traveled to Weskan to play an A-team tournament. This was a tournament that was scheduled for October, but had to be rescheduled two times. In the first game, Cheylin played the Tribune Panthers. The last contest between these two teams was a very close match that Tribune won by 5 points. At the end of the first quarter, Cheylin led 6-4 and by halftime, Tribune took the lead 13-12. At the end of the third quarter Tribune led 20-17, but after trying to foul and make a comeback, Tribune won the game 29-18. This was an emotionally draining game. The girls played so hard and never let up. Diana Garcia was taken out in the second quarter after a fall to the ground, so that hurt us as well. Kelsey Miller led the Cougars with 8 points and had 5 rebounds. Elsa Craig Burr added 4 points with 4 rebounds. Diana Garcia, Danae Magnani, Elizabeth Keltz, and Haleigh Rucker all put in 2 points. Danae had 5 rebounds and 3 steals, Elizabeth added 4 rebounds and 4 steals, and Haleigh had 2 steals. This was the most physical game we have played all year. The ladies did well and played very hard.

In the second contest, the Cougars took on the Coyotes from Weskan. After playing the night before and such an emotional game in the first round, the Lady Cougars were a little spent. By halftime the Cougars were trailing 21-4. The final score was Cheylin 15 and Weskan 29. This was a disappointing loss since we had beaten Weskan earlier in the season. Elsa Craig had 6 points and 3 rebounds. Elizabeth, Danae, Kelsey, and Haleigh all had 2 points. Elizabeth had 5 rebounds and 5 steals, Danae had 3 steals, Kelsey pulled down 4 rebounds, and Haleigh grabbed 6 steals. Stephanie Alvarado had 1 point with 3 rebounds and 3 steals. All of the ladies played in this game and did a good job. Needless to say, they were exhausted after the game. I am very pleased with the effort and the improved skills that the ladies are showing.

Republicans urged to participate in caucus

On Saturday, March 10, Republicans from all over Kansas will be participating in the Kansas Republican Caucus. Registered Republicans in Cheyenne County are encouraged to participate.

The caucus is designed to say to the Republican National Committee how much support the state of Kansas has for the various Republican candidates.

Kansas has 40 delegates to the National Convention and it will take 1,144 delegates to nominate the ultimate GOP presidential candidate.

The caucus is different than the traditional primary in that it is run by the state party, paid for by contributions as opposed to the primary which is sanctioned and funded by taxpayers in the state. The last time a standard primary was held in Kansas was 1992.

On March 10, registered Republicans in Cheyenne County are encouraged to come to the St. Francis high school cafeteria at 9:30 a.m. to sign-in in anticipation of the actual voting. They MUST have government issued identification (driver's license is acceptable) and be registered by Feb. 17. Once there, registered voters will hear from representatives of each still viable candidate and then vote. The meeting begins at 10 a.m. but polls will remain open until 1 p.m.

Local results will be made known through The Saint Francis Herald and Bird City Times.
