Floyd Russell, Long Island, (above) drove his 1931 Ford Model A in the parade. Gerald Shearer, Norton, (below) drove Francis Morehead's 1939 WC. The tractor was the grand prize of last year's show. P. Livergood, Hays, (left) serviced a three-horsepower Nova small engine. The engine was one of many on display at the show.

The 1930s era Minneapolis-Moline corn sheller carried ears of corn up a conveyor belt and a steady stream of kernels of corn came out the other end.
