NORCATUR NEWS

By NORCATUR NEWS-LETTER VOLUNTEERS

Rea and Dee Magers hope that none of the locals had the frightening experience of meeting their grain bin coming down the road at them during the wind storm Saturday evening, May 29. When they arrived home, they spotted it on the Wentz property south of them, and said it looked somewhat out of place in more ways than one. Another landmark gone!

Donations totalling $48.72 were made to the American Legion from Poppy Day sales, collected by local children.

Eleanor R. "Deetee" Janousek, Class of 1952 from Norton Rural High School, wrote as follows: I so wanted to come out for Memorial Day but my grandson comes first. Yes, on the 30th my grandson Cody is being confirmed into the First Methodist Church here in Lawrence. There will be a group of 22 youth that day. Most of them are 12 years old and some are 13. I am doing fine. I go back to Iowa City for my 6-year checkup this coming Thursday, May 27. I enjoyed the article about Memorial Day in Norcatatur. Surprised that I remember those that are taking care of the festivities. Hoping to get out that way this summer or fall for a few days. Hope that the 30th is a nice day. Remembering some that were not and it sent everyone scurrying homeward before the rain, wind, and yes, even funnel clouds got us wet.

Keith and Linda Jurey, Albuquerque and Richard Jurey, Edmond, Okla., were Memorial weekend guests of Virgil and Joyce Price. That Saturday morning Marie McConnell, Idaho Falls, Idaho, and Marian Howland, Bird City, came to visit. Sunday visitors were Max Thielbar, Lincoln, Neb.; Charley and Carolyn Kelley, Lamar, Colo.; Rex and Merle Cozad, Hutchinson; and Kenneth and Pansy Price. We had an enjoyable weekend with family and friends and visiting with others who were at the Norcatatur Memorial service.

Memorial weekend guests of Lowell Sebaugh were Bob, Mary, Kyle, Tyler and Kayla Lough, Wamego. Joining them for Sunday evening supper were Janice and Rodney O'Hare, Norcatatur; Scott O'Hare, Hillsboro; Brooklyn, McKenna and Kaden O'Hare, Oberlin; Cody and Nickala O'Hare, Norton; Linda and Motala Hunt, Norcatatur, and Melissa Ehrenreich from St. Louis, Mo.

Vacation Bible School will be coming to Norcatatur Methodist Church in June, one day only, perhaps on June 21, from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. We are looking for participants and helpers. Not sure of the age group, but we will work with whatever ages we can get. The Norcatatur and Clayton area children are encouraged to attend. Contact person is Alice Barnett at (785) 693-4571.

Rea, Dee and Jeff Magers attended the Memorial services and potluck dinner at Lyle on Sunday, May 30. On Memorial Day they attended services at Lebanon, Neb.

Ronald L. Gregory, 75, a 1946 graduate from Norcatatur Rural High School, passed away on April 16, 2004, at his home in Northglenn, Colo.

On Friday night, May 28, Hollie and Justin Ricke arrived at the Bob and Kay Strevey home for Memorial weekend. Saturday was spent making cookies and Justin enjoyed the golf course. Sunday everyone was at the services at the cemetery and helped with the cookies and tea at the Educational Building. Sunday evening, May 30, all were at Darrel and Alice Barnett's for supper with more friends and family. On Memorial Day Hollie and Justin and Kay were all at the Norton service. Bob gave the address there. Afterward everyone had lunch, and Hollie, Justin and Shine, their dog, headed back to Andover.

Memorial weekend guests of Beth Sebaugh, Oberlin, were Mr. and Mrs. James Bunney, Garden City; Mr. and Mrs. Keith Applegate, Columbus, Neb.; Sharmon Applegate and Dennis Kaufman, Denver.

Thursday evening, May 27, guests of Goldie Brewer were Oran and LaVerne Milner and Veda Wood for dessert and dominoes.

Cathy Claussen and Beth Johnson attended the alumni banquet held in Long Island on Saturday evening, May 26, honoring Beth's 55th class reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. David Johnson and Zoie were Memorial Day weekend guests of Beth Johnson and Fred Molzahn. Cathy Claussen visited Sunday and attended the Norcatatur Memorial Service with them.

The 60th class reunion of Dee (Hahn) Magers was held at the Senior Citizens Center in Lenora on the 29th of May. There were six members out of a class of 19 able to attend.

Birthdays and anniversaries: Francis Hix - June 2; Ron Harman, Darrel and Marla West - June 3; Alice and Darrel Barnett - June 5;

Dennis Wood - June 7; Pansy Price, Kenneth and Pansy Price - June 8.

Memorial services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, June 12, at the Norcatatur Cemetery for Evelyn M. (Rubendall) Williams and Ronald Anderson, son of Alice (Rubendall) Anderson. Friends and family are invited for services and luncheon immediately following at the Educational Building in Norcatatur.

Cathy Claussen and Beth Johnson drove to Independence, Mo., on Saturday, May 22. On Sunday they attended a reception honoring LaNae Molzahn who graduated from Licensed Practical Nurse School with honors.

Todd Nelson, Bel Aire, was a houseguest of his parents, Bill and Bee Nelson, for the Memorial Day weekend. He returned to his home on Sunday afternoon.

The Mark Ward family was overnight guests of their parents, Dorothy and Kenneth Ward, on Friday, May 28, leaving Saturday for Hillsboro. They were taking the grandchildren to their other grandparents for a 2-week stay. K.J. was to help his Granddad McMinn shingle their house. All had lunch at Adventures in Eating in Norton before they left.

Rodney, Lisa, Ronald and Lora Linn Leichter were callers Sunday evening, May 30, at Kenneth Ward's.

R.D. Thornton was a patient at the Oberlin hospital. He was released on Wednesday, May 26.

Memorial weekend visitors at the R.D. Thorntons were Ray, Jen, Bryce and Abigail Thornton, Rod and Lisa Leichter, Bev Morris, Scott Beachel, Misti Beachel, Pat and Lonnie Shearer and Sarah.

Lynn and Ed Wedow of Scottsdale, Ariz., spent Memorial weekend with her parents, Wilber and Lula Hix.
