Club learned to delegate

North Dividers Family and Community Education Unit met Oct. 15 at the Town and Country Kitchen. Ten members answered roll call by telling what they like best about fall. Rose Mathes was appointed new card chairman.

Sherrill Wendel gave the lesson from the Hearth Fire Series, "Don't Do It — Delegate". The object of delegation is to enlist others to assist you in accomplishing common goals. To be an efficient leader you must be willing to delegate tasks. Leaders should know their members likes, dislikes and talents. It is important to get all members involved.

Nov. 15 is the date for the Fall Workshop at Hoxie.

The next meeting will be Nov. 19 at the home of Mrs. Wendel. Toby Kuhn will be speaking on "Identity Theft".

As a bonus, members received a recipe for "Delegate It! Blond Brownies".

4-H NEWS

By TIMOTHY BECKER
The Busy Jayhawkers held their monthly meeting Oct. 17 at Elmwood Park.

For roll call, members had to line up according to how many letters are in their first name. Installation of officers for the upcoming year was held.

Phillip, Eric, Melinda and Tim Becker gave an opening on strange facts. Annette Becker gave a talk on being the junior project leader in photography. Jessica Gilgenbach informed the club about her goat project.

After adjournment, members enjoyed a hayrack ride and a hot dog roast at the Gilgenbach farm.

It was announced that Achievement Night is Nov. 7; Aerospace Camp is Nov. 11-14; and Youth Leadership Forum is Nov. 19-21.

CORRECTIONS

In the Oct. 12 edition of The Telegram, a story and picture about a new airbrush tanning salon listed Kylee Kindall as the daughter of the owner/operator Sara Kindall. Kylee is the step-daughter of Mrs. Kindall.

This was an information error. ☆☆☆☆☆

In the Oct. 12 edition of The Telegram, a story on the Norton City Council meeting said that carparks are being constructed at the Norton Manor on the east side of the building. The carparks will not be constructed until 2005.

This was a reporter's error.

In the Oct. 19 edition of The Telegram, the recipe in Cook's Corner for baked barley listed 3/4 C chicken broth. The correct amount should have been 3 or 4 Cups.

This was a typographical error. ☆☆☆☆☆
