

Final winners of the T & D Bait Shop Fishing Contest

Fishing Contest

Sponsored by

Budweiser

CRAPPIE — Using a medium shiner, Randy Smith of Logan caught his 12 1/2 inch, 1 pound, 4 ounce crappie on April 17.

FLATHEAD CATFISH — Using a chub as bait, Nathan Rummel, Ludell, snagged his 7 pound, 14 ounce, 27 inch flathead catfish on Aug. 22.

BLUEGILL — Norton's Jerrold Hester used nightcrawlers to snag this 9 ounce, 8 3/8" blue gill.

SAUGEYE — Using shiner and roadrunner as bait, Scott Critchfield, St. Joseph, Mo., caught his 4 pound, 10 ounce, 23 3/4 inch saugeye on May 8.

WIPER — Norton's Justin Waggoner snagged his 8 pound, 14 ounce, 27 1/2 inch wiper on May 8.

LARGEMOUTH BASS — Dan Miller of Byers, Colo., caught this 2 pound, 7 ounce, 16 3/4 inch largemouth bass on Aug. 6.

BULLHEAD CATFISH — Darin Williams, Norton, used a worm to reel in his 4 ounce, 9 1/4 inch bullhead catfish on May 20.

WALLEYE — Eric Denault, Norton, caught his 4 pound, 12 ounce, 24 1/2 inch walleye using a nightcrawler on May 16.

CARP — This 15 pound, 10 ounce, 32 inch carp was snagged by Raymond Wait, Norton, on April 26.

CATFISH — Norton's "Bobber" Bill Klein caught his 14 pound, 12 ounce, 31 1/2 inch catfish using cut bait on June 1.

GREEN SUNFISH — Using nightcrawlers, Almema's Casey Dole snagged his 4 ounce, 7 1/2 inch green sunfish on June 6.