By VIVIAN JANSONIUS
Nov. 4, Virgil and Marilyn Whitsitt and Norman and Rose Erickson of Phillipsburg; Wauneta Schemper of Long Island and Hazel Jansonius of Prairie View, left for Albuquerque, N.M., to visit at the home of Melvyn and Delores Walcott.

The Gleaner's Circle of Prairie View Reformed Church, met Nov. 4 at the church. Darline Brown conducted the meeting and gave a reading. Vivian Jansonius had the devotions and Linda Van Der Weele presented the Bible lesson, "Faith and Its Effects". A letter from Lavonne Lester was shared with the members. Roll call was answered by six members.

A large crowd attended the Phillips County 4-H Supper on Nov. 6 at the 4-H Building.

Burdett and Belva Leydig spent Sunday in Kearney with their family, Gene and Tammy Tillotson, Sydney and Colin and Mike and Lisa Leydig, Courtney and Megan.

Kassy DeWitt, who attends college in Sioux City, Iowa, spent the weekend at the home of her parents, Jerry and Gloria DeWitt.

Priscilla Van Der Weele, who attends college in Salina, spent the weekend at the home of her family, The Rev. and Mrs. Jeffrey Van Der Weele and Philip.

Congratulations to Brady Tien and Jordan Girard. They play for the Norton Junior Jays 6th grade football team. Their team won first place in a tournament, beating Wichita in triple over-time. They also beat Blue Valley and Topeka. They end their season as undefeated champions.

Nov. 6, the 4-H Achievement Banquet was held at the Phillips County Fair Building. Attending from the Lone Prairie 4-H Club were: Vivian Jansonius, Jan and Dian Tien and Samantha, Clarence and Bette Tien, Brenda and Lizzie, Mitchell Johnson, Colby and Cher Greving, Caley and Christen, Phil and Liz Jansonius and Tim, Rodger and Shirley Van Loenen, Gloria DeWitt, Alan and Sherry Woodside and Eric and Ethan Hays. Aaron and Michaela got membership pins; Caley got a clover pin; Shyanne, Samantha, Brady and Trevor got emerald pins. Silver pins were given to Jordan, Tim, Autumn and Eric. Joell was recognized for being a 13-year member. Eric Woodside won the 2004 Project Award for swine and also won the news writing award.

Lone Prairie 4-H Club met Nov. 8 at the Prairie View Senior/Community Center. President Tim Jansonius conducted the meeting. Michaela Girard led the flag salute and roll call was answered by 23 members, and seven leaders telling what they wanted for Christmas. Seven parents and one visitor were also present.

Installation of officers was held. They are: President, Tim Jansonius; Vice-President, Shyanne Thompson; Secretary, Trevor Tien; Treasurer, Eric Woodside; and Reporter, Samantha Tien.

Burdett and Belva Leydig visited Ron and Velda Martinez in LaJunta, Colo., over the Veteran's Day holiday. They visited her sister, Doug and Wanda Brown at Atwood.

Virgil and Marilyn Whitsitt and Norman and Rose Erickson of Phillipsburg; Wauneta Schemper of Long Island; and Hazel Jansonius of Prairie View all went to Albuquerque, N.M., last week to visit their sister, Melvyn and Delores Walcott. They returned last Tuesday.

A baby girl was born to Todd and Amy Slavik on Nov. 14 at Hays Medical Center.

Mr. and Mrs. Slavik live in Long Island. They named their daughter Toree Lynn. She weighed 6 pounds 6 ounces and was 21 1/2 inches long.

Grandparents are Daryl and Bonnie Slavik of Kensington and Bill and Diana Greving, Prairie View. Great-grandmothers are Clara Slavik of Kensington, Evelyn Hudson of Smith Center and Mary Keith, Norton.

WILSONVILLE NEWS

By VELMA HOLTZE and LAURIE LAWS
Thanksgiving was the theme of the fun and inspirational get together at the home of Velma Holtze on Friday afternoon. Pat Yost, was the recipient of the cornucopia centerpiece as well as some of the game prizes. Guests came from McCook, Cambridge, Wilsonville and Pat's friend Karen Martie from Ohio.

1967. What a fun time they had visiting and reminiscing. The women say he has an excellent memory as he talked about his days at Wilsonville School. He has been back only once in the 35 years, but after visiting he decided he would certainly like to come back for the next alumni. At noon the Preshers were guests of the women for dinner at the Country Club.

matter of seconds; The Clarion had lost its large south window. There was also a little damage inside the building such as broken shelves, etc.

Wilsonville Women's Club
The Wilsonville Women's Club met in the basement of the Baptist-Christian Church for their November meeting. Velma Holtze gave devotions. Hostesses were Connie Wilson and Laurie Laws. Roll call was to bring an antique roll call. Nadeane Haag led the members and guest in many fun old time songs and Happy Birthday was sung to Adeline Ballou. Liza Deines of Norton gave the program. It was a very informative and fun program on antique glass. Delores Atkinson also of Norton travelled to Wilsonville with Mrs. Deines for the evening of fun. Pat Yost gave an update on the Readers of the Month program. Discussions of the December meeting were held and plans were made for that meeting. Connie and Laurie served a delicious luncheon.

For the program Nadeane, in a very clever way, took us through a day at school from seating the pupils through the various classes. The subject matter ranged from singing to some puzzling mathematics and even to some informational material about presidents for the history class.

Several women from this area went to Norton on Saturday to take in all the craft shows. This has grown to be such a large affair that it is now housed in five different buildings.

Pam Frecks and Charlene Springer of Lebanon drove to Brush, Colo., on Saturday morning where they met Ivalene Simmons of Oshkosh. Together they went to the home of Ron Prescher and wife. Assisted by his wife, this get-together was planned as a surprise to Mr. Prescher, their superintendent and volleyball coach beginning in Speaking of former teachers, Ed and Sally Morgan of Douglas, were in Hill City recently on business, when they had the urge to drive to Wilsonville. They had lived when he taught here in the 70s. They visited briefly in the home of Allen and Connie Wilson.

Margene Holtze had lots of excitement her first afternoon on her own at The Clarion office. Shortly after her employer, Jolene Miller, left for the hospital to deliver the new baby she was startled to see a vehicle headed right toward the office. Yes, the driver had hit the gas instead of the brake and in a

I Help Others Club
Nadeane Haag, who was all prepared to host I Help Others Club in September using "A Day at School" theme, but had to give it up because of a heart condition. Vice President Carla Holtze presided at the business meeting. Election of officers was held with the same officers being re-elected and Margalee Ruf elected to be assistant secretary.

Members chose the months they wanted to host the meeting. It was decided to continue the same plan with the hostess planning the entire meeting as well as choosing what project the money would be

For roll call each woman answered by telling what she liked in her dinner pail or what she didn't like. Nadeane served refreshments when each woman packed her lunch, which was fun as well as very tasty. It also brought back memories of school lunches. Nadeane's project went to the library. Before leaving for home each one signed a get-well card for Margaret Brown.

Baby Girl
Jolene and Justin Miller are the parents of a baby girl, Breele Lorayne. She was born Tuesday, Nov. 9. The Millers have two other children, Braxton and Baylee. Grandparents are Kim and Kathy Miller and Becky and Jim Holtze. This makes great-grandchild number 14 for Velma Holtze.
