Area club held tea party

By BEVERLY KINDLER

Nine members of the Mid-Century Federated Club attended a "Tea Party With Dolls" hosted by the Modern Study Club in Phillipsburg on Nov. 15.

Small tea tables were decorated with linen cloths, small Sunflower Sue felt dolls and featured a tray of sandwiches, sweet treats and lemonade.

Members were invited to bring a doll. These were displayed and during the program, members told about their doll. The program also included readings about dolls and mothers and group singing of "School Days", "Playmates" and "Whatever Will Be, Will Be".

Rally for ethanol in Lenora was a success

An event to promote the use of ethanol was held in Lenora on Nov. 5. It was sponsored by Norton County Farm Bureau Association, Hi-Plains Co-operative in Lenora and the Kansas Corn Commission.

The Ethanol Rally was held at the Country Corner grocery store/filling station, where 108 vehicles filled their tanks that day with a total of 1,933.3 gallons of ethanol. Farm Bureau members purchased 1,114.7 of those.
