Norton track stars honored

By DICK BOYD

Members of the Norton Community High School track teams received letters and awards at the annual track awards night on Tuesday in the high school band room.

Head Coach Bruce Graber introduced the members of both squads and told about their successes. Parents and fans were present to help honor the athletes.

Named "Most Inspirational Track Athlete" by vote of the team members and coaches was sophomore Blake VanEaton.

VanEaton was also named "Most Outstanding Male Track Athlete" and junior Chelle Donovan earned the "Most Outstanding Female Track Athlete" Award.

Team captains were seniors Derek Volgamore and Amber Engelbert.

Earning the most points this season were freshmen Courtney LeClair, 73 and Jared Cox, 91.25.

Volgamore and Donovan received All-Mid-Continent League certificates in recognition of their first-place finishes in the league meet. Volgamore won the 1,600-meter run and Donovan the pole vault.

Coach Graber thanked his coaching staff, student manager, parents and fans. His assistant coaches are Doug Reusink, Dale Engelbert, Todd Fulton, Jason Jones and Anne Otte. Chantille Campbell was the manager.

"We had a great season," said

Coach Graber. "If you measure the season by how much improvement and good times we had, it was a great year.

"We got the season off to a good start, then the injury bug hit us. Our youngsters kept hanging in there and working, working, working."

"I've never been prouder of a group of girls and boys. They worked hard all season and produced many personal records in the regional meet, where we had fifth place finishes all day in addition to our four qualifiers.

"I'm awfully proud of the successes of our athletes this season."

"It was a fun season. Our youngsters got better every day they went to the track and that's awesome."
