Logan sophomore Bethany Clements hands the baton to freshman Shelley Kemper for the second leg of the Class 1A 4x400-meter relay. Later in the race, the baton was unintentionally jarred out of the grasp of another relay member and the delay cost the Lady Trojans valuable time and a place in Saturday's finals.

Logan senior Lanee Webb crosses the finish line in the Class 1A 4x400-meter relay. A dropped baton delayed the Lady Trojans and they placed sixth in their heat, which did not qualify them for the finals.

Northern Valley freshman Joni Hilburn tied for tenth in Class 1A with a personal best vault of 8 feet. She just missed 8 feet 6 inches which would have placed her much higher.

Logan sophomore Anne Hartman rounds the curve in her heat of the Class 1A 200-meter dash. She placed eighth in her heat with a time of 28.01 seconds and did not qualify for Saturday's finals.

Northern Valley junior Joey Copper was timed in 16.64 seconds in his heat of the Class 1A 110-meter high hurdles and just missed the finals by two tenths of a second
