

K-18 baseball team splits at Smith Center

By DICK BOYD

The Norton K-18 baseball team opened the season by splitting a doubleheader on Monday at Smith Center.

Norton won the first game, 15-8, but lost the second, 17-2.

"We didn't have a lot of time to practice before playing games so I was pleased with the way we played in the first game," said Norton head coach Ward Foley.

"In the second game, we moved our players around to see who could play where and, unfortunately, we made a lot of errors.

"We need more practices and will improve as the season progresses."

Norton's assistant coach this season is David Bainter.

Norton 15, Smith Center 8
In the opener, Smith Center scored three runs in the first.

Norton tallied a single run in the second when Jordan Bebb and Matt Stanley walked and Bebb scored when Kaenon Keiswetter singled to right field.

The Redmen went scoreless in the inning and Norton scored three runs in the third to take a 4-3 lead.

Terrell Lane walked, Travis Ray singled, Todd Bolt got on base via an error and Lane, Ray and Bolt all scored.

In the third, the Redmen scored two to take a 5-4 lead.

Norton took advantage of eight walks and three hits in the fourth to score 11 runs and take a 15-5 lead. Keiswetter walked, Zac Dreher was hit by a pitch, Terrell walked, Bainter got on base on a fielder's choice, Ray doubled, Bolt walked, Michael Zink walked, Brian Ulmer doubled, Stanley walked, Keiswetter was hit by a pitch and walked for the second time in the inning, Dreher walked for the second time and Lane singled.

Dreher and Lane scored twice in the inning and Bainter, Ray, Bolt, Zink, Brian Ulmer, Stanley and Keiswetter scored once each.

Smith Center added two in the fourth and one in the fifth to make the final, 15-8, in favor of Norton.

Norton had five hits. Leading hitter for the Blue Jays was Ray, who went two for four.

Smith Center had seven hits.

Bebb pitched the first three innings, giving up six hits, striking out four and walking two. Ray came in for the save, hurling the last two innings and allowing one hit, striking out two and walking two.

Smith Center 17, Norton 2
In the nightcap, Norton scored once in the first when Ray singled and tallied and once in the second when Brock Lauer singled and scored.

Smith Center tallied eight runs in the first and nine in the second.

The Blue Jays committed 16 errors.

Each team had just two hits. Norton's were the singles by Ray and Lauer.

Wilson was the winning pitcher and Bolt the loser.

Next competition for the Blue Jays will be this evening when they host Stockton, at 6:30 p.m.

Former Norton man runner-up for prestigious award

By DICK BOYD

Neal Philpot, Norton Community High School graduate and 2005 graduate in biology from Pittsburg State University, was the runner-up for the Ken B. Jones Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association Student-Athlete of the Year award.

This was the 12th year for the award, which is named in honor of the man who served as the association's first full-time commissioner for 16 years.

Philpot was one of three men and three women finalists invited to the association's awards banquet on June 2 at the Marriott Downtown Muehlebach Tower's Colonial Ballroom in Kansas City, Mo., where the winners were announced.

The men's winner was Clint Prange, a two-time national champion in track and field for North west Missouri State University.

The women's winner was Sara Murray, an All-America soccer player for Truman State University.

An 11-member panel of athletics directors, sports information directors, senior women's administrators and faculty athletics representatives selected the winners.

Judging was in 2004-'05, athletic accomplishments, 2004-'05 academic accomplishments, 2004-'05 campus/community service and career athletic, academic and service achievements.

During his football career at Pittsburg, Philpot broke numerous team, league and national records as well as leading his team to many record-setting performances.

This season, he quarterbacked Pittsburg to a 14-1 record and National Collegiate Athletic Association II national runner-up finish.

A two-time All-American, he directed a Pitt State offense that set all-time national collegiate all-division records for scoring (837 points), rushing (5,320 yards) and total offense (8,976 yards).

Philpot set a Mid-America record with 3,223 yards of total offense his senior season. He also set the league career record for total offense of 10,168 yards.

He was a four-year All-Mid-America selection and two-time

Mid-America Offensive Most Valuable Player.

This season, he became the first quarterback in national collegiate history in all divisions with three 1,000-yard rushing-passing seasons and the first to eclipse 3,500 yards rushing and 5,000 yards passing in a career.

He was on the honor roll for three straight years and was involved in community events during his career at Pitt State.
