Emily Juenemann, center, awaited her turn to model in Tuesday afternoon's buymanship modeling competition. Younger models, Johnnye Ruder, right, and Katie Bohl, partially hidden, looked up to the older girls as "role models".

Public fashion review will be held Saturday

The theme for this year's public 4-H fashion review is "100 Years of Fashion". The review will be held at 7 p.m., Saturday at the 4-H Building. Clothing from yesteryear will be on display during the show.

Most members enrolled in the clothing project have completed their project work. Judging of clothing construction was Tuesday followed by buymanship later that night.

In the construction phase, 4-H'ers will exhibit garments and articles they have made and also model outfits and accessories they have made. The 4-H clothing project also includes two buymanship phases. These 4-H'ers select outfits from the ready-to-wear for their wardrobes.

The garments and articles that the 4-H'ers have made will be on display at the 4-H Building during the fair.

Judges this year are Vicky Overley, Phillipsburg, and Sandy Jacobs, Phillipsburg.
