By VELMA HOLTZE and LAURIE LAWS

Velma Holtze's visitors at the home of her daughter, Margene, this past week have been Dick and Joan McLaughlin, Virginia Rice, Avis Wolfe, Marilyn Klinkebiel and family members.

Jim and Becky Holtze, the Justin Miller family, Brian Holtze and Lyndzie Claus drove to Beatrice Sunday to surprise Janene Holtze for her 20th birthday.

Butch and Billye Oliver from Wisconsin spent Thursday until Sunday in the Kenneth Holtze home after the four returned from Texas. Joining them for Friday supper were the LaVern Banzhaf family, Brad Holtze and sons, all of Cambridge and Bob and Lori Anderson from Arapahoe. The Holtzes, Olivers, Andersons as well as Don Trosper, Joe Kassons, and Cambridge families attended the Ankenman reunion on Sunday.

A spotty rain fell Friday. Some places received only .20 while other areas received well over an inch. The cooler weather was much appreciated.

Word has been received that Wayne Lutjeharms of Republican City had surgery in Lincoln on Aug. 15. He was a teacher in Wilsonville in the early 1970s.

members met Aug. 4 at the church. President Margalee Ruf opened the meeting with prayer. White Cross chairman, Alice Kasson, presented the White Cross quota for the India Hospital and an Indiana Children's Home. Avis Wolfe and Virginia Rice have been busy making school bags which were to be filled with school supplies brought by the women for the August project. Some will be sent to Gillian Park for her work in Romania. Plans were made for the wedding shower for Brian Holtze and Lyndzie Claus on Sept. Virginia Rice will be in charge of the program at the September meeting when Sherrill Smith from Child Saving Institute will be the guest speaker. The meeting will be a noon luncheon with the church congregation, including the men, as guests.

Following the business meeting, the women and five Sunday School children traveled to Beaver City to the Manor to spend time with the residents. Connie Wilson had planned a short program consisting of the children singing several songs, a hymn sing with everyone joining in and an interesting devotional which she gave emphasizing "blessings". The children enjoyed helping serve the Manor residents dessert prepared by the Martha Committee.
