Extension council gives two scholarships

The Norton County Family and Community Education Council has awarded two $500 scholarships to young women enrolled in the nursing program at Norton County Hospital.

Hospital Administrator Richard Miller said 11 students applied for the scholarships.

The recipients are Heather Matson, McCook, and Michelle Pierson, Colby. Miss Matson graduated from Lakeside Central High School in Trenton, Neb. She is single and wants to continue her education and become a registered nurse.

"I always wanted to go into medicine," she said. "My goal is to become a pediatrics nurse and work in a children's hospital."

Mrs. Pierson is 28 and a graduate of Colby High School.

"I've worked hard to get here," she said. "I will get my licensed practical nursing degree in May and then my family is moving to Colorado Springs."
