Extension Council welcomes 12 new members

Twelve people will be joining the Norton County Extension Council now that elections are over.

The council's executive board met Monday to certify and canvas the ballots. Elections took place Oct. 31-Sunday.

Each year three members are elected to fill the four educational program committees — agriculture, family consumer sciences, 4-H and youth and community development.

Newly elected members are:

- Agriculture — Chris Tanner, Dan Skrdlant and Chad Brooks;
 - Family Consumer Sciences — Joy Johnson, Patsy Maddy and Gloria Zwickle;
 - 4-H and Youth — Shannon Esslinger, Darrel Barnett and Kara Miller;
 - Community Development — Scott Sproul, Kim Wicker and Patsy Newell.
- Each person elected will serve a two-year term to help advise and plan the county's extension education program.

Public Awareness Meeting

The City of Norton will be holding a Public Awareness Meeting to inform citizens about the upcoming Water and Wastewater Treatment Plant Projects. The Project Engineer and representatives from KDHE and K-State will be present to answer questions from the public.

The informational meeting will be held Monday, November 14 at 5:30 p.m., beginning at the Water Plant located at 706 S. Johnson Road. Participants will then proceed to the Wastewater Plant. Tours of both facilities will be given, and detailed information will be provided regarding both of the upcoming projects.
