

Veterans Paul Myers (left) and Bob Winteroth shared the spotlight as they rode in a convertible down State Street.

Gold Star Mother Maris Brooks (above) rode in the most important float in the parade with Wava Donovan, another Gold Star Mother. Brady Riggins (right) played his part on trombone while the Norton Junior High band marched down State Street.

Curt Archibald commanded the color guard and honor guard during closing exercises of the parade.

SO PROUDLY YOU SERVED

We remember those who served with honor and courage and we remember those who gave their lives to defend our freedom. May we never take for granted the important contribution these brave men and women have made to this great nation.
