WILSONVILLE

By VELMA HOLTZE and LAURIE LAWS

Special music at the Baptist-Christian Church on Sunday was a solo sung by Carrie Park from Arapahoe. Worshiping with the congregation were several visitors including Arkansas hunters.

Velma Holtze enjoyed coffee hour with the Beaver City Manor and Assisted Living residents at Beaver City on Friday. She also called on Margaret Spence, Margaret's son, Lonnie Spence, from Colorado was coming to spend the weekend with her.

Margaret Brown hosted the Nov. 9 I Help Others meeting by inviting members to the Cambridge Senior Center for dinner. Since Margaret had chosen St. Jude Children's Hospital for her monetary project, she had also invited Margene Holtze for dinner. Following the dinner, Margene shared information about the research and patient care at St. Jude and the founding of it by Danny Thomas. Margene had first-hand information since she has visited there three times, having served as the St. Jude Nebraska coordinator for Epsilon Sigma Alpha International.

Vice President Carla Holtze presided at the business meeting when the secretary and treasurer gave their reports. Thank yous were reported from the Trent Smith family and the Wilsonville Emergency Medical Technician. Plans were discussed for the Christmas meeting and it was decided to go the Cambridge Assisted Living for an afternoon party. Officers were also elected.

Devotions were given by Margaret which consisted of many facts about the beginning of Thanksgiving Day and an article concerning Thanksgiving memories closing with a prayer for hurricane survivors. Roll call was answered by seven members, including Carol Volker who has become a member, sharing something about Thanksgiving and a Guidepost article written by a woman from Eustis.

The Lady Trojans left Thursday after a pep rally for Lincoln to compete in the state volleyball games. This included Kellie Ballou and Whitney Rice from Wilsonville. They lost their first game on Friday afternoon.

Saturday afternoon at five, the football team played the semi-final game against Thayer Central (Hebron) winning 29-9. They will be playing for the State championship in Lincoln Friday. This will be the second time in the past four years Cambridge has had this honor. Brian Ballou from Wilsonville will be one of eight seniors playing their last football game for Cambridge High School.
