Letters from Jennings Grade School

Dear Santa,
How are you? I've been a good girl this year. I would like a baby doll and a baby doll crib. I love you Santa.

Love, Stephani Noone
6 years old
First Grade

Dear Santa,
How are you? I've been a good boy this year. I would like a toy truck and a trailer and a tractor and a barn. I love you Santa.

Love, Drake Rowh
7 years old, Second grade

Dear Santa,
I wish I could see you, but I can't because I have to be asleep before you can come to my house. And Santa, I would want a real unicorn and I would want something for my mom. It is a very good, good ring. That's it.

Trevor Bruhn, Kindergarten

Dear Santa,
Please bring me a pink guitar. A little one with my same age so I can play it. I would like a pink book what is a princess one. And I would like a pink pencil with Barbies on it, and that might be it. I've been good.

Candace Taylor
Age 3

Dear Santa,
I know what I want. A bicycle. Not a real one, a toy one. I want it to be pink. I would like a snowman. I have been about this good and this good. I will leave cookies.

Malilah Green, Age 3

Dear Santa,
I love Santa. I want him to give me my favorite race car, Jimmy Johnson, a Christmas tree. And I want letters, computer-not a big one, just a little one. I want a dinosaur and it's a T Rex. I want a squeezey toy and it's a star.

Andrew Noone, Age 4

Dear Santa,
I want Dora. I want a Dora doll. I've been good all day. I want to leave you cookies.

Taryn Rogers, Age 3

Dear Santa,
Please bring me a hat. And a new train. I have been good.

Tyson Bochert, Age 4

Dear Santa,
I want a toy Barbie dog, a toy Barbie car, a real baby puppy and a nice little unicorn and that's all. I'm going to leave cookies and I've been good at school. You're a very nice guy.

Brecken Rowh, Age 5
