

Phillip and Gerry Loughry (below) look at one of the red cedars in their newest windbreak west of their home. The windbreak (above) is used to shelter the Loughry's livestock. After they planted the red cedar windbreak, they put sod (right) in between each of the three rows to help keep weeds down.

— Telegram photos by Veronica Monier

Rural Telephone salutes the conservation efforts of our area farmers and ranchers.
Congratulations award winners!

Rural Telephone reminds you to call 1-800-DIG-SAFE prior to your construction or digging activities.

RURAL TELEPHONE SERVICE CO., INC.

145 N Main | PO Box 158 | Lenora, KS 67645

v.785.567.4281 | f.785.567.4401 | 1.877.567.7872 | ruraltelephone.com