Offering individuals with disabilities unique opportunities for growth and independence — that's Developmental Services of Northwest Kansas.

One of DSNWK's strengths is its College For Living program. This innovative program gives people with disabilities the opportunity to further their learning by offering a choice of classes in an adult setting, with enrollment and semesters resembling a university. Through the planning of the semester and course work, everyone can work to meet their personal goals.

For more information about The College For Living and some of DSNWK's other exciting programs, visit our new website at www.dsnwk.org.
