Northern Valley girls lose semifinal game to Claflin

The season ended Friday night at Russell for the Northern Valley varsity basketball girls in the semifinals of the Class 1A substate, losing to the eventual champion Claflin Wildcats 56-38.

The Lady Huskies end the season with a 10-14 mark.

Northern Valley's roster listed but one senior, Serena Woodside. Claflin, on the other hand, had 10 seniors on the roster, leaving them with one junior and one freshman to bolster their hopes next season.

Northern Valley trailed at the end of the first quarter 15-10 and 35-18 at the break. Heading into the final period, the Huskies were still on the short end of the score 46-31.

The Huskies were led by Andrea Lowry and Jena Jessup with 11 points each. Claflin's Kayla Klug was the game's top pointmaker with 15.

The Wildcats went on to win the tourney and advance to state this week at Hays with a 50-37 win over Brewster. Claflin enters state with a 24-1 record.
