Arts council gets a good showing from 'Patsy'

Patrons of the Norton County Arts Council and ticket holders to the "Patsy Cline and Friends" concert got a real treat Sunday night. Some said if they shut their eyes, they would swear Patsy was still alive, singing her heart out to "Sweet Dreams" and "Crazy".

Others thought, Patsy's friend, Louise, played by Peg Sampson, stole the show with her sassy southern accent and ultra-bouffant hair. Annette Cook, who portrayed the legendary Patsy Cline, has been taking her show on the road and living the part for 30 years. Other members of the troupe were pianist Mary Baker and drummer, Shawn Evens.

Ms. Cook went through several costume changes to portray the showbiz side and the down-home country girl side of the entertainer. A standing ovation at the end of the show brought an encore number. This was the last show of the Arts Council's season. Watch for details of next season's offerings and ticket information.
