WEEKLY SERMONETTE

“A Poster Board of Pictures”

I always find it amazing that when we come to the end of a significant time in our life the first thing we desire to capture the feeling is a picture. I think pictures be-ness of our Heavenly Father, who has been with us every step of the way. Sometimes He has been a loud parent in the grandstands cheering us on. Sometimes God has been a teacher or coach who has pushed us farther than we thought we could go because He wants to see the best of us and for us. Sometimes God is shown to us in the many people who touch our life briefly only to make it better.

Graduates, this is that special time for you when you get to look back at all the accomplishments you have made in your life that have gotten you to where you are today. You can be proud of what you have done. You have worked hard and have accomplished much.

Over the years the faces in those pictures change (including yours). Some of those people will fade from your life and some will continue to play an important role. However, just let me encourage you, that as life passes by, pull out the photo album every once in awhile and remember the people who have made an impact on your life. Most of all, remember the steadfast faithfulness of a Father in Heaven who loves you and has been watching you from day “one” in love. He will also be with you forever, if you allow Him to put your picture in His family photo album.

The Posture of Motherhood

There are many changing postures of motherhood. A new mother gently cradles her daughter. A seasoned mom reaches out to her growing son, and before she knows it, has to stretch upward for her hug.

The emotional posture of motherhood remains unchanged... a posture of prayerful love. A child is always in his mother's prayers. No one quite loves us like our mothers... except God. In Isaiah 66:13 we read, “As a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you...”

On Mother's Day, may we bow and offer a thankful prayer for mothers everywhere as we worship in God's House.

Door prizes were won by Anne Jansonius, Bette Tien, Stanley Harbers, Becky Isom and Mike Isom. Each volunteer was presented with a plant to take home.

The Prairie Homemakers met April 24 at the Prairie View Center with 11 members present. Door prizes were won by Pat Hammond and Judy Van Der Veen. Wanda Schemper and Julia Schemper served lunch.

Others attending were Belva Leydig, Anissa Kats, Bev Schemper, Gloria DeWitt, Diana Greving, Sue Newland and Vivian Jansonius.

NEW ALMELO

By BETTY OTTER
On Sunday, April 23, Alfred and Betty Otter attended a bridal shower for their granddaughter, Misty McDuff, in Great Bend. Misty is a daughter of Sharon and Paul Otter of Great Bend. Misty and Tyler Paul of Topeka will be married in July.

Roger and JoAnn Long, New Almelo, and their daughter, Joanie

Winkel, Norton, joined their daughters, Stephanie Kirk, Keeler, Texas, and Renee Cella, Denver at Stephanie's home in Keeler, to help her celebrate her 40th birthday.

Family coming to the home of Marion and Lorraine Long this past weekend were Tom and Jan Long, Hays.
