

family fun at the fair

Garrett Esslinger waved from his horse while Carson McKenna looked at the lights on the merry-go-round as they enjoyed a ride during last year's fair.

The roller coaster managed to get a scream or two out of its young riders during last year's Home Owned Carnival. The carnival board bought the ride three years ago.

— Telegram photo by Veronica Monier

Wyatt Loken, 2, took a big bite out of a piece of watermelon Wednesday night during the annual Porkburger Special and Watermelon Feed. Wyatt is from Juneau, Alaska, and was here visiting his grandparents Tom and Cathy Brannan. This was his first fair.

— Telegram photo by Veronica Monier