

All Your Hard Work and Dedication Paid Off!

Coach Cameron Archer loads the BB gun for Dustyna Sprigg in the sitting position. She shot an excellent 95.05.

Alternate Kaitlyn Campbell received the alternate first place medal for shooting from the sitting position. Her score of 99.05 was second high of all 253 shooters from the sitting position and third high overall in all positions.

Assistant Coach Mike Campbell reloads the BB gun for Kaitlyn Campbell during her fantastic 99.05 marksmanship from the sitting position.

Coach Cameron Archer checks the target with binoculars as Dylan Sprigg fires from the sitting position. He shot an outstanding 95.01.

Coach Cameron Archer visits briefly with Caleb Vanover as he loads his BB gun for another shot from the kneeling position. Caleb recorded a 91.02.

Chance McMullen pulls the trigger from the prone position as Coach Cameron Archer looks down range. Chance recorded a 95.01 score.

Assistant Coach Mike Campbell checks a Norton shooter's target from the prone position as Chance McMullen waits for his chance to go on the firing line.

Joe Tinsley, site coordinator for the international shoot, prepares to plug a target to determine its value. James Sellers of the Tussey Mountain, Penn. team and Lynette Archer of the Norton team graded each other's targets but questionable shots were decided by Joe.

This photo taken on the shooting range in Diddle Arena shows the three tiers of activity during firing from the standing position. At left are the shooters and coaches on the firing line, at right are other team personnel checking shooters' scores and next relay shooters and, at far right, some of the team personnel can be seen grading targets.
