Correctional facility honors employees

Three Norton Correctional Facility employees were presented awards in honor of 30 years of service to the State of Kansas. Secretary of Corrections Roger Werholtz joined Warden Jay Shelton in honoring Wayne Rupke, Carla Hawks and Jim Kauten. Mr. Rupke began his employment with Norton State Hospital. When the Norton Correctional Facility began operations on the grounds of the former state hospital, he continued working in the facility's powerhouse. More than 20 years of his service has been spent on the 12-8 or "midnight" shift. Mr. Rupke and his wife, JoAnn, live in Prairie View. She is self-employed in tax and financial services. The Rupkes have two children: Emma, a senior at Logan High School, and Vance, a machinist employed at Salina. Recipient Carla Hawks also began employment at the state hospital. In 1988, Mrs. Hawks transferred to the records office at Norton Correctional Facility where she continues to work. She and her husband, Steve, live in Alma. Jim Kauten began state service with the Kansas Department of Transportation. He began at Norton Correctional Facility in November of 1987. Mr. Kauten works in the facility's Intelligence and Investigation division. He and wife, Patricia, live in Norton.

Phillipsburg girl's poster wins safety contest

An eight-year old Phillipsburg girl was one of three winners in the Northwest Kansas "Put the Brakes on Fatalities Day" poster contest. The contest was sponsored by the Kansas Bureau of Transportation. Darah Kay Portenier of Phillipsburg, nine-year old Morgan Beougher of Stockton and 12-year old Akaylah Trundle of Colby were the three winners. All three will receive a bicycle donated by the Hays Wal-Mart and a helmet donated by Safe Kids Kansas. The presentation will be at 1 p.m. Friday, Oct. 6 at the Hays

Wal-Mart. It is being held in conjunction with the regional Safety Seat Check Lanes event to be held from 1 to 3 p.m. in the store's parking lot. More than 900 posters were entered from students across the state. The contest helps make people of all ages aware of the need to reduce fatalities on our nation's highways.
