Unexpected ladies take Prairie View by surprise

By CHRISTINE HARVEY

Dinner and a show proved to be a winning combination at the Senior Citizen and Community Center the evening of Oct. 4.

Ladies in the area signed in to be seated at lovely tables decorated in fall colors where they enjoyed a buffet filled with hot dishes, salads, desserts and coffee. Unexpected guests arrived at the affair, much to the delight of the ladies

These unexpected guests, better known as The Church Ladies, included six of the most colorful, zaniest and talented ladies who brought their act to Prairie View. And, what an act it was! Dressed in colorful hats, attire and glasses, and pushing a shopping cart, they descended on the crowd. They during the course of their dialogue, sang popular Christian and secular songs, some of which were accompanied by color-keyed hand bells. After opening with the song, "Go Tell It On the Mountain", The Church Ladies performed a comedy routine depicting them driving in a car. They asked the question, "How do you know where you are going?" It was agreed that they follow a map and that map was The Word. The next question was "how do you get to heaven?" At which point they broke into song singing, you can't get to heaven on roller skates...on a rocking chair...in a limousine... While arguing over driving, the one driving insisted the other take the Miles Or More, Who Brought the wheel, and handed it to her saying, Most Guests, and Who Had Ear-"Here, you drive!" This led into a rings 2 inches Or Longer! performed many comedy routines touching, heart-felt rendition of

"Jesus Take The Wheel". This solo truly spotlighted the depth of talent these comical ladies truly have. Later, the ladies at the dinner were invited to play the hand bells at their tables during the song "Will the Circle Be Unbroken" and to join in song. The show ended with The Church Ladies singing "On The Road Again" by

Willie Nelson. While The Church Ladies enjoyed their dinner, door prizes were given as awards for The Youngest Mom, The Oldest Mom, The Oldest Wife, The Youngest Grandmom, The Mom with the Youngest Child, Who Was Married the Longest, Who Traveled 30

Congressman calls for unity

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Congressman Jerry Moran has asked for the support of the Administration and House leadership in coming to the aid of America's farmers and ranchers. In a bipartisan event in the nation's capitol, Congressman Moran and members of Congress from both parties, along with several agricultural organizations, joined together to pledge their support and continue their efforts.

"Farmers, ranchers and rural communities are suffering, not only in Kansas, but throughout America's Heartland," he said. "I am pleased with the broad group of members who joined together today and are pushing to get disaster assistance passed. Convincing those in House leadership and down at the White House that di- ing herd liquidations.

saster assistance is a necessity has been a difficult task, but we are still working hard and doing everything we can. When farmers and ranchers suffer, so does every small town in America."
