Norton County Weather – October 24th – 28th

Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
 68/35	 70/35	 60/30	 63/32	 65/35

Normal High: 63
Normal Low: 35

Sunrise: 8:00 to 8:04 A.M.
Sunset: 6:43 to 6:48 P.M.

The County is in store for a nice weather this week. Temperatures will be at or slightly above normal with the only shot for moisture coming Wednesday night with the passage of a weak cool front. The mild and dry weather will continue right into Halloween. Moisture the past two months has been great for the pastures and newly planted wheat. Let's hope the weather pattern stays active the rest of the Winter, because a bunch of snow is the best answer to solving the lingering effects of the drought! Remember the time changes Saturday night, so set your clocks back one hour.

My thanks to Lee and Siobhan Hanes for stopping to assist and calling the ambulance, to the Almena First Responders and Norton County Ambulance Crew, and the medical personnel at the Norton Hospital and at Good Samaritan Hospital in Kearney for their excellent care and kindness. A special note of appreciation to Dr. Sorrell for undoubtedly saving my life, to my family for being there throughout my ordeal and to Pastor Kirk Kasson for his visits, calls and many prayers.
