

A souped-up street rod provided transportation for Larry Urban and his grandchildren.

Our Veterans, Our Heroes

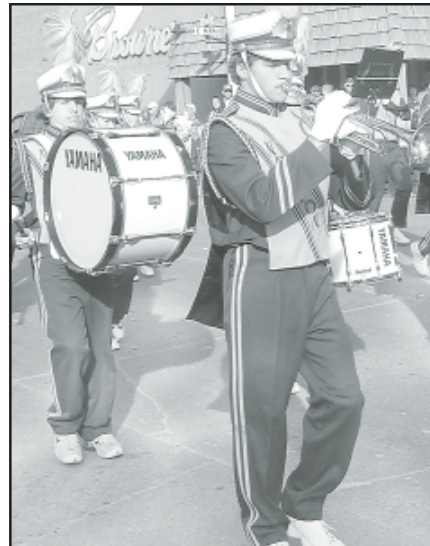

A trailer full of Cub Scouts and leaders rode in the Veterans' Day parade.

Having their own one-bicycle parade, the two dog friends of Mary Jane Wahlmeier, enjoyed watching the crowd as they were peddled down State Street in Saturday's parade.

Members of the Norton American Legion firing squad were left to right: Richard Miller, Dave Ward and Mel Rice. Other members of the squad facing away from the camera were, Myron Beitz, Dave Cuthbertson and Joe Ballinger. The squad was lead by Jake Durham

Members of the Norton Community High School marching band played rousing patriotic music as they paraded down State Street.

A chilly wind caused some parade watchers to huddle together and grab a blanket.
