

Norton woman retires from state

Fonda K. Lawrence, District Three Secretary for the Kansas Department of Transportation, will retire from her post with 32 years of service on March 12 with a reception from 2 to 4 p.m. in the Norton District Office.

Mrs. Lawrence began working for the district in 1974, as a clerk stenographer I. Her past duties have included typing permits, correspondence, managing files and the Adopt-A-Highway program. She became proficient in shorthand and was always the one to plan office functions and retirement parties.

She will remain an active member of the Immanuel Lutheran Church, Norton; the After-5 Club; and will enjoy her scrapbook activities, traveling to see family and helping with local service organiza-

She and her husband, Ed Lawrence, have two children: Paul Lawrence, Boise, Idaho; and Shawna and Thom Dunaway, Dallas, Texas.

She also has one grandson, Cole Dunaway, Dallas.

Quilters learn new techniques at meeting

By JACLYN RUTHERFORD
The Heritage Quilt Club met March 5 at Prairie Land Electric. Thirty-five members answered roll call with "Show and Tell" of new and "UFO" projects finished. A thank you card was read from the parent of a new baby who received a quilt donated to Norton County Hospital from Heritage Quilters. Lois Myer and Judy Carlisle presented the "Rocky Road" quilt block for the next block-of-the-month project. A road trip is being planned to Great Bend to view quilt blocks around the courthouse and visit a quilt display on April 21. A posey, four-patch "Stack and Whack" class will be given by Regina Stark and Jackie Rutherford at Prairie Land on March 24. Folded fabric flowers were demonstrated by Regina Stark. Everyone folded spring flowers for a beautiful, one-of-a-kind card. Lunch was served by Trish Fischer, Karen Glenn, Janet Mathes, Marcia Shoemaker and Kathy Skrdlant. The next meeting will be April 2 at the Long Island Community Building.

American Legion picks Logan girl for scholarship

Emma Rupke, daughter of Wayne and JoAnn Rupke, Prairie View, has been named as a recipient of a Ted and Nora Anderson American Legion Scholarship. Miss Rupke, a senior at Logan High School, was among 30 statewide applicants judged by the Legion's Essay, Oratorical and Scholarship Committee. She will receive one of four $500 scholarships made available each year through a fund established by the late Ted and Nora Anderson, Clay Center. Miss Rupke plans to attend Butler County Community College and major in Healthcare Administration. She maintains a 3.31 grade point average.

Fluids topic of extension workshop

Most of us are aware of the value of healthy food choices in disease control and prevention. We have heard of the health benefits of increasing our physical activity and getting plenty of rest. But, many of us are unaware of the marvelous dividends we can receive from daily consuming adequate amounts of water and other nutritious fluids. Fluids are definitely one of our body's greatest assets and are absolutely necessary to the health and well being of our body.

This presentation will be presented by Karen Shepard, Family and Consumer Science Agent from Graham County, at 10 a.m., Tuesday, March 13 at the Norton County 4-H Building. Topics to be covered include:

- Discuss at least three of the critical functions of fluids in the human body.
- Give examples of the role fluids play in keeping different parts of our body healthy.
- Identify the common signs of dehydration and possible results of lack of hydration.
- List reasons why older adults and children need to be monitored more carefully to be sure their fluid needs are being met.

- Discuss the pros and cons of bottled water.
- Make appropriate healthy choices in the types and amounts of fluids to consume daily.

Please RSVP to the Norton County Extension Office at (785)877-5755 by Monday. A minimum of five persons must sign up in order to hold this program.

CORRECTION

In the Tuesday, March 6 issue of The Norton Telegram, a story about the new policemen in Norton said Jeremy Hartwell had been a policeman in Larned for four years. Officer Hartwell had actually worked in Larned for nine years. The mistake was a reporter's error.

The Norton Telegram will correct or clarify anything that is wrong in a news story. Call our office at 877-3361 to report errors. We believe news stories should be fair and factual, and want you to tell us about any failure to live up to this standard.
