Norton club meets to recap activities of the past year

Members of Mid-Century Club were greeted with tables decorated in a Victorian theme when the club met April 26 at Attitudes Restaurant. This was the club's 55th Spring Dinner and it was an "Opportunity to Celebrate". Miss Valerie Lee, vocal instructor at Norton Junior High and high school, was a special guest. She announced that her wedding will be held in 93 days. Miss Lee performed several vocal solos for the club. President Beverly Kindler conducted the meeting and told members that the annual pie sale was again a success. Leta Donovan read thank letters from the Norton Public Library for the books given in Dorothy Lundgren's honor and from Vida Perrill for the help she received when she had her accident. Geraldine Packer presented to the club the "Certificate of Appreciation" and the "Certificate of Recognition - Lifelong Learning/Literacy" that Mid-Century was awarded at the Greater Federation of Women's Clubs Sixth District convention. The club also received a purple ribbon for their year book. Rosalie McMullen's poetry won a first place award in the district's creative writing contest. Darlene McEwen read the poem to the members. At the Feb. 8 meeting, members submitted recipes for their favorite sweet tooth dish. Lois Myers compiled these recipes and presented them to every member. Maxine Wiltfong presented the Club History for 2007. The history shows a busy club year. Roll call was answered with "A Thought for the Day". April birthdays were Carolyn Higgason, Eunice Neiltopp, Lynn Nelson and Maxine Wiltfong. Summer birthdays will be Rosetta McFarland, Rosalie McMullen and Doris Winteroth. Jean White conducted the installation service for the new officers for the 2007-2008 club year. The theme will be the importance of "Keys". Officers installed were: Beverly Kindler, president; Geraldine Packer, vice-president; Darlene McEwen, secretary; Lynn Nelson, treasurer; and Leta Donovan, corresponding secretary. Hostesses for the dinner were Carolyn Higgason, Claire Ann Eppinger, Ginne Concannon and Beverly Kindler.
