

In remembrance of...

The firing squad stood at the Norton Cemetery at attention before they were called on to fire a salute to their fallen comrades. From left to right they are John Becker, Bob Underwood and Max Georgeson. — Telegram photo by Carolyn Plotts

Veteran Julius Field decorated the symbolic graves of 13 fallen soldiers from World War I, World War II, the Korean War and the Vietnam War at Almena's Memorial Day celebration. — Telegram photo by Veronica Monier

Veteran and member of the Almena American Legion, Dave VanPatten held a salute to honor his fallen comrades. — Telegram photo by Veronica Monier

Two veterans, Jake Durham and Delbert Berry, snapped a salute to the flag during Lenora's Memorial Day services. — Telegram photo by Veronica Monier

As a salute to fallen soldiers, Robert Holliday played taps at Wilsonville's Memorial Day services. — Telegram photo by Christie Anderson

While honor guard commander Jake Durham, far right, barked out commands, these veterans kept the cadence as they marched into the cemetery at Lenora before Memorial Day services. They are from left to right, Max Georgeson, Gil Otter, Gary Aumiller, Jim Goeken, Jim Mai and Bill Mai. — Telegram photo by Veronica Monier

Ready! Aim! Fire! The firing squad fired a volley of shots to honor fallen soldiers buried at Mount Hope Cemetery. They were from the Almena American Legion. From left to right they are Warren Sidman, Casey Dole, Benjamin VanPatten and Walter Hoover. — Telegram photo by Veronica Monier

Justin Scheimo played the echo to "Taps" at the conclusion of Norton's Memorial Day ceremonies. Standing beside Mr. Scheimo was Anthony Wenthe. — Telegram photo by Carolyn Plotts