CARD OF THANKS

THE FAMILY OF Peggy L. Lockhart would like to thank everyone who touched her life and ours over the past several months. We want to thank Dr. McKinley and the staff at the Norton County Hospital, especially the nurses and the nurses aides who offered Peggy and her family such loving care. Thank you to Pastor Worthington for consistently providing spiritual support and to the parishioners of the Church of God for their prayers, preparation of a dinner, and for serving our family such a wonderful meal. Without the help of Reva, Missy, and Ward from Hospice of Norton County, we would not have been able to keep Peggy at home for her last days. It was a privilege and honor to be with her and we cannot thank Hospice enough. You may have sent a card, called on the phone, said a prayer, brought food, sent flowers, or in some way been there for us. Our heartfelt thanks go out to each of you as you have shared in our sorrow and helped to lighten our load. — Hop Lockhart, Bev and Ed Whitney and Families, Geraldine and Dick Heil and Families, Gary and JoLynn Lockhart and Families, Twila Carter
