

All Your Hard Work and Dedication Paid Off!

Head coach Cameron Archer checks her target as Kaitlyn Campbell squeezes off another round from the kneeling position. She shot a 96 to tie for eighth overall in that position among the 214 shooters.

Cristine Nelson takes aim from the sitting position as head coach Cameron Archer observes along with assistant coach Mike Campbell with the binoculars.

Lane Vanover recorded many bull's eyes during his marksmanship from the kneeling position. He shot an outstanding 97 to tie for fifth among all shooters.

Norton head coach Cameron Archer adjusts the target so his shooters can begin firing from the standing position, the toughest of the four.

Cole Archer pulls the trigger from the kneeling position as head coach Cameron Archer looks on.

Head coach Cameron Archer looks down range with the binoculars as Kegan Vanover fires from the prone position.

Norton classroom instructor Lynette Archer was all smiles after Kristi Horn, Broken Bow, Neb., made a positive "plug" in a Blue Jay target. Observing are Norton parent Keri Vanover, at left, and Tim Londene, representing the Lake Houston, Tex. team.

Lynette Archer turns in another excellent Norton target to John Venskoste, international BB gun match director.

The annual Barter Bar on Saturday evening attracted another large crowd as shooters, coaches, officials, parents and fans got better acquainted by trading souvenirs from their states.

The Barter Bar was another memorable event during which everyone enjoyed trading souvenirs and visiting about their states' positive features for several hours on Saturday evening.
