

Your Marksmanship was Among the Best of the Best!

Norton alternate Erin Archer fires from the tough standing position as assistant coach Mike Campbell looks down range. She tied for 12th in standing and placed 22nd in the aggregate competition.

Kegan Vanover tied for sixth among all shooters in the tough standing position with a 94.

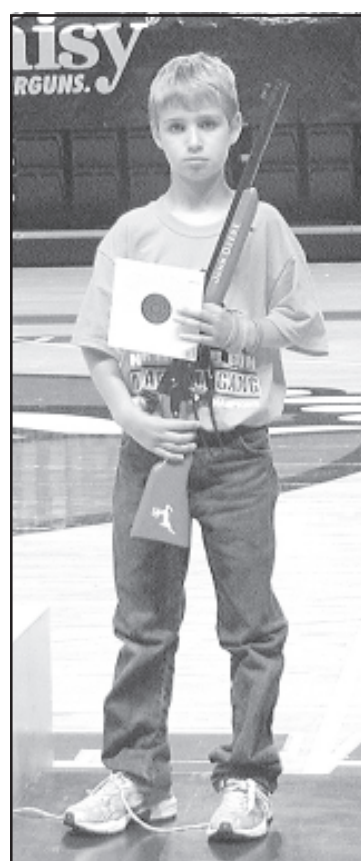

Cole Archer recorded a 91 in the standing position, which tied for 26th place.

Kaitlyn Campbell fires from the sitting position under the watchful eye of head coach Cameron Archer. She shot an excellent 96 to tie with Cole Archer for 20th best out of all shooters.

Norton's Cole Archer was honored during the Awards Ceremony for having the "Best Decal Gun".

Norton's Clay Vanover received a special award for "Best Hand Painted Gun" during the Awards Ceremony.

Norton alternate Clay Vanover focuses on the target as he fires from the prone position as assistant coach Mike Campbell observes.

This photo taken looking down the firing line in Diddle Arena shows coaches and shooters as they competed from the sitting position.
