The tenth annual Gallentine Fourth of July Picnic was held with barbecue at Plum Creek Ranch, northwest of Clayton, on the farm owned by Jerry and Shirley Gallentine of Rapid City, S.D., on Saturday evening, July 7. Over 70 relatives, friends and neighbors enjoyed eating great food and visiting this year. New this year were Larry and Marcia Stapp, Holcomb; Al and Becky Rohr, Colorado Springs; Mark and Juli Anna Baker and children; and Lois, Megan, Rebecca and Amy Wentz.

Earlier this month Pansy Price accompanied her daughter, Marlene Wolf, and granddaughter, Erica Wolf, to Colby. Virgil and Joyce Price stopped by for a visit with Kenneth and Pansy Price at Whispering Pines, Norton, and on Saturday evening, July 14, Gerald Minkler and his son, Adam, dropped by for a visit. They all enjoyed eating out, and Gerald fixed Pansy's sewing machine while there.

Katherine Severns wrote to say that her brother, Pete Hoppes, is very ill. He has a plugged artery that can't be cleared, and his kidneys are failing. The doctor has given him only a short time to live. He would appreciate hearing from folks, as Norcatour has always been his hometown. He may be reached at 6990 Huron St., Denver, Colo., 80221. Katherine may be reached at 2213 Horace Greeley Ave., Norton, Kan., 67654.

On Saturday afternoon, July 14, visitors of Frank and Velda Ward were Mr. and Mrs. David Albin and Judy Smith of Estes Park and Denver. They also visited Wava Reames in Norcatour. David and Judy's parents are the late Lee and Marion Albin, and Marion's parents are the late Walter and Florence Ward.

Houseguests of the Dennis Shirleys June 27-July 5 were their granddaughter, Lauren Waldron, and her friend, Elaine Smickle of Bangor, Pa.. They came to help P.T. with the harvest. Other guests for a cookout on July 4 were P.T. and Cindy Shirley of Norcatour, Hannes Geyser, Waldo DeKock, Merle Shirley and Doris Sloan of Oberlin.

Ron and Geri Temple entertained with a taco supper on Friday, July 13, guests were Charles and Rena Griffith, Ozark, Ark.; Von and Joy Johnson, Norcatour; and son-in-law Rick Wyrens, Ceresco, Neb. Rick Wyrens had been here doing "honey-do" items for the Temples.

Dwight and Teresa Wood went to Lincoln, Neb., earlier this month, and Dwight was admitted to the hospital. He was to have another vein transplant on Saturday, July 14, and hoped to be home the following week if things went well. They are thankful for everyone's prayers.

Veda Wood rode to Hastings, Neb., last Thursday, July 12, with Bee Nelson, Marguerite Clark and LaVerne Milner. Marguerite had an eye appointment, and Veda went to see her aunt, Alta May VanGundy.

Bee Nelson, Mary Lesle and Dorothy Ward enjoyed lunch together at the Frontier Restaurant in Oberlin on Sunday, July 15.

Congratulations

Best wishes are extended to Patrick Shirley and Cindy McKenna on their marriage on June 9. Parents of the couple are Dennis and Judy Shirley, Oberlin, and Beth Heikes of Norton. We welcome Cindy and Shelby (Cindy's daughter) to the Norcatour community.

Dana Paxton, matron of honor, and Patty Rowh, maid of honor, both of Norton, and Mathew Sloan, best man and a cousin of the groom, of Grainfield, and Cody Richards, groomsman, from Kearney, Neb., stood up with the couple. Shelbi McKenna and Shelby Barlow were junior attendants. Jaylei Sloan was flower girl and Gavin Wasson was ring bearer. Erin Archer, Norton, was candlelighter. Crista Rhoades attended the guest book table. A dinner, reception, and dance followed at the Gateway Civic Center in Oberlin. The meal was catered by P.T.'s aunt, Leanna Sloan.

Shelby Barlow, niece of P.T., and daughter of Beck and Cash Barlow of Florida, stayed to visit with the Shirley family after the wedding, and returned home on June 15. Lauren Waldron, daughter of Vicki Waldron and also a niece of P.T.'s, and friend Elaine Smickle, came from Pennsylvania to help with harvest and show Elaine the northwest Kansas farming communities. It was definitely an experience for the both of them. The girls returned home on July 5.

Museum Tidbits
