Card of Thanks
We are truly grateful for the loving and generous expressions of sympathy we've received since Dan's death. The cards, calls, food, flowers and memorial gifts have all been appreciated, and your comforting words and emotional support have been a genuine blessing to us all. A very special thanks to Pastor Don Covington for his heartfelt words and message, and also to the Long Island United Methodist Women for providing lunch after the service. The family of Daniel E. Holterman
