By DARLENE McEWEN

Coordinator

There is a weekly reminiscence event at the Andbe Home led by Rose Ann Miller, Social Service Designee, entitled, "Tuesday Topic." Residents share as Rose Ann suggests a topic. I found the topic for Sept. 4 to be very interesting. Rose Ann had residents finish the sentence, "One time I was in trouble at school because I"

Beth Mustoe recalled vividly that she and two friends made faces at another girl. They all received spankings from the teacher. Later, Beth received another one at home! That's exactly what would have happened to me at home and I'll bet it was the same kind of punishment that Beth would have given her daughters, Rosemary and Judy Anne.

Velma Knapp remembered getting in trouble for things she said about someone. Velma has always had a gift of gab and she often has a room full of people visiting in her room.

Evelyn Johnson, who you will know better when you know that she is Don Johnson's mother, laughed and answered that she had gotten in trouble one time but wouldn't share what she had done.

Wava Hickert and a friend in first grade went to a playroom that was off limits that day. They were caught! This may be the reason Wava was so patient with the children she taught.

Paul Ballinger didn't think of something he did but he remembered Jerry Sloan spitting chewing tobacco and that upset Miss Norris! Jerry's daughter-in-law was in the building one day so Rose Ann asked her if that was right and Wendy thought sure it could be. Lots of people remember Miss Norris as the math teacher at NCHS!

Doris Wallack reminisced that she was too afraid to do anything to upset the teacher.

Marjorie Drommer chuckled and said she really was ornery and did things she shouldn't of.

Marcia Cochran thinks she was the teacher's pet.

Lola Brack, who is Marla West's mother, laughed at herself when she thought of the awful "whispering" that she did. A good number of residents must have been very good pupils because they couldn't recall any incidents.

I wanted to answer because I took a little bit of teasing well but, a lot of it was not tolerable. I thought I was doing the right thing in Mr. Wiltfong's sixth grade class. This ornery boy put some stickers in the seat of my desk and I sat on them. Now, I always had enough padding that it didn't hurt but I thought I could get him in trouble so I screamed! Guess what, it wasn't the ornery boy that got an F in conduct on his report card but Darlene did. I didn't get to go to the Saturday Matinee for six weeks when my parents saw that F. I really think an F in English or Math would have been easier for my folks to deal with than the F in conduct.

The Jennings American Legion and the Auxiliary hosted a meeting on Sept. 24 in the former Royal Neighbors of America Building with some of the Sixth District officers attending. Present were: District Vice Commander, Mary Beth Valcoure; Dept. Service Officer, Damon Christensen; Sixth District Auxiliary President, Lisa Valcoure; Sixth District Parliamentarian, Gwen Frost and several local Legion and Auxiliary members.

Following the meeting a tour of the museum was enjoyed. Coffee, tea and cookies were served.

Claudine Bennett remains in Denver after having surgery. She is doing well.

Nick Wahlmeier, Hays; Jeff and Mary Wahlmeier, rural Clayton; and Stan and Ramona Shaw met Kevin and Colleen Wagoner, Sharon Springs and Zach and Katie Golemboski in Colby Saturday evening and enjoyed supper together to honor Stan on his birthday.

WALKING IN THE CONFIDENCE OF GOD ANNOUNCEMENT

"Keep your lives free from the love of money and be content with what you have, because God has said, 'Never will I leave you; never will I forsake you.' So we say with confidence, 'The Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid. What can man do to me?'" (Hebrews 13:5-6)

Christians have the continual presence of the Lord within them. God's protection and provision are offered to them as well. The writer of the Book Hebrews quotes two great Old Testament passages of Scripture. One is Joshua 1:5, "No one will be able to stand up against you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, so I will be with you; I will never leave you nor forsake you." Two, the writer quotes Psalm 118:6, "The LORD is with me; I will not be afraid. What can man do to me?"

I would propose to you that Christians must be free from the love of money and the things of this world. They must be content with what they have and learn to walk in the confidence of God.

For the next several weeks we will be looking at the theme "Christian Living." There are four key truths to grasp in this series on this message:

Those who walk in the confidence of God have the marks of contentment

Christians can walk in confidence because this God is self-existent

Christians walk in confidence because they serve not only a God who exists but also a "Providential God" as well

Christians can walk in confidence because He is also a personal God
