

Norton Homecoming

2007 Norton Community High School Homecoming Royalty were, from left, attendants Lacy Ellis, Sara Lentz, Kylie Morel, Queen Ashley Smith Maybon, King Aaron Husted, attendants Logan Kats, Jared Cox and Todd Bolt and, front, crown bearers Abbey and Alexander Auker.

— Courtesy photo by Alyssa Farber

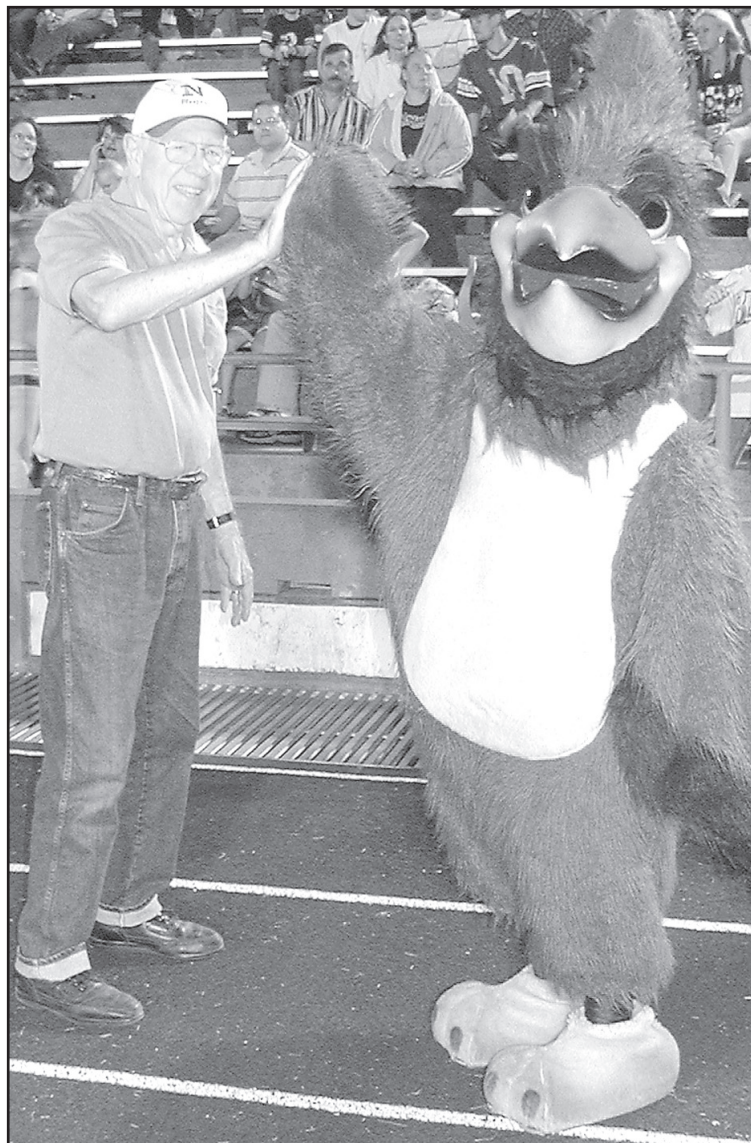

All "snazzed up" (above) in a Blue and Yellow suit for the homecoming parade was Norton Community High School's own Zac Dreher. A former Norton football player and father of a member of the 2007 football squad, Doug Ray (left) addressed the crowd gathered for the pep assembly. Mr. Ray encouraged the young men to make and hold on to their memories. The Norton Blue Jay (below) was exhausted after he performed a high-energy routine with the high school dancers. "Luckily" he collapsed into the midst of the Norton cheerleaders.

— Telegram photos by Veronica Monier

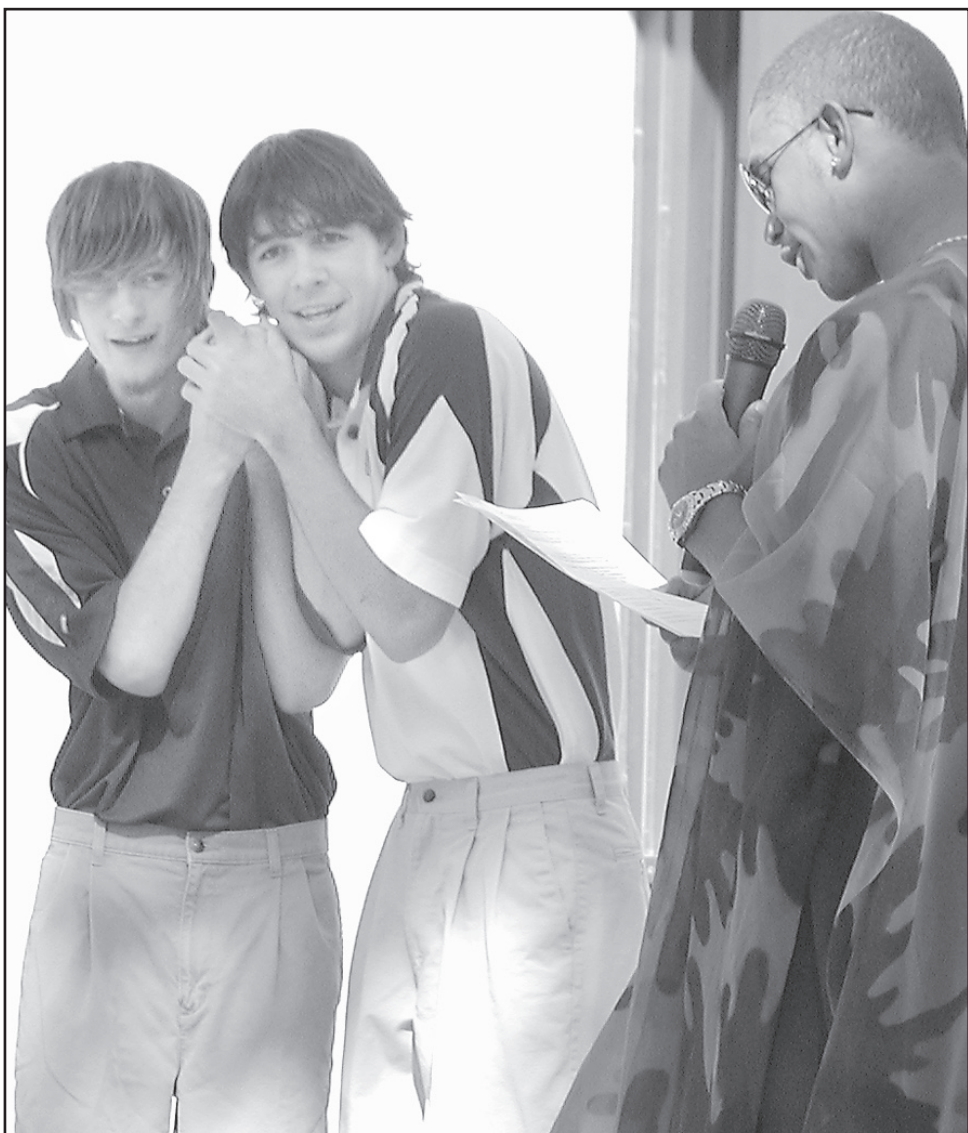

She's got the moves. Dance team member Lacy Ellis danced on the Courthouse steps during last Friday's pep rally.

— Telegram photo by Carolyn Plotts

Mel Rice, retired Norton Community High School teacher and "Voice of the Blue Jays" and currently the reigning "Norton Blue Jay Booster of the Year", exchanged "high fives" with the Norton Blue Jay during the Homecoming football game with Stockton at Travis Field on Friday evening.

— Telegram photo by Dick Boyd

Quivering with anticipation, Aaron Van Der Wege, left, and Jared Cox hung on every word as M.C. Terrell Lane announced the judges' selections during the "Norton's Next Top Model" skit at the homecoming pep assembly on the Courthouse steps.

— Telegram photo by Veronica Monier

This was the last homecoming float and parade for the senior class. Members of the class rode tall, along with the Norton Blue Jay, in last Friday's parade.

— Telegram photo by Veronica Monier