Museum feels their quilts will textile art works, will be in the gallery until Feb. 24. Kansas Art Quilters, an organization dedicated to promoting textile art in quilt form, explores new vantage points and attitudes using fabric, thread, beads, dye and paint in their works. Formed in January 2001, the KAQ meets biannually at various locations in Kansas. Membership includes quilt artists and people who are closely associated with the art quilt community, and is open to all interested persons from any state. Membership includes over 50 people from 13 states. "Kansas Art Quilters: Altered Views" is their sixth annual traveling exhibit.

In conjunction with the Kansas Art Quilters, the local Heritage Quilt Club has a display of their quilts. Heritage Quilt Club is an area club dedicated to educating and promoting awareness of quilting. Members attend monthly meetings with various programs and lessons presented.
