CARD OF THANKS

PAULA AND I would like to try and express our gratitude to anyone and everyone, who has been involved in any way with my conflict with the bull. First, to all the men at the bar who tried to help, to the EMT's who got me to the hospital, (although I can't remember a single thing about this trip!) Family and friends who gathered in the emergency room, and the prayers that started going up. The doctors and nurses. the care was great, the whole time! to people who visited, called, brought flowers, food and prayers. I'm especially thankful to neighbors who did my chores, and the special crew who worked our cattle this week. Like you, we've had situations that didn't work out like we wanted; prayers that weren't answered the way we hoped they would be. I can't explain all this, but I do know one thing; the Lord was with me on this day. May God Bless Everyone of You! — Norman and Paula Strayer and families.

— 4/8 —

THANKYOU to everyone who called, sent a card, stopped by with food, made a donaton to the memorial, sent flowers or in any other way acknowledged our loss. the outpouring of kindness has been very appreciated. A special thank you to Father Vincent, the Andbe Home Staff, and all our friends and relatives for everyting you have done for our Mom and Grandma. — The Family of Olene Hillebrand.

— 4/8 —

WE WOULD LIKE to thank everyone for personal visits, cards, food, flowers, memorials and especially the Royal Neighbors for the dinner. A special thanks to the Garden Gate for the floral arrangements. May God bless you. — The family of Lee Arnold
