

NORTON MANOR

By DORIS MIZELL

Carolyn Linsmeyer arrived Tuesday to visit her mother, Doris Mizell, for a few days. She was on her way home from a graduation in Texas. That evening Roberta McAlister, Clayton; Patty Foster, Jennings; Lester Mizell and Ray and Ruth Mizell gathered at the parental home for a pizza party.

Josephine Murphy and Mary Keith enjoyed lunch Sunday with Ed and Linda Keith. Other guests were Ryan and Karman Keith of Holyoke, Colo.

Will and Bernita Benhams are leaving at the end of June for a two-month stay in Colorado.

Diane Greiving and Evan Slavik came and helped Mary Keith with some household chores.

Friday Doris Mizell, Carolyn Linsmeyer, Roberta McAllister and Patty Foster went to Hays to visit Gus and Ivalee Munsinger. Ivalee is Doris' sister-in-law and the girls' aunt. The afternoon was spent on working on the Kirk genealogy. The mother of Ivalee and Doris' husband Lysle was a Kirk. Carolyn left for home on Saturday.

LYLE NEWS

Sunday Veda Wood was visited by Mariah and Garret Bader and Grant Slater.

The senior citizens enjoyed a potluck dinner, Friday noon, followed by cards at Norcatur. Those from Lyle attending were: June Jolly, Margaret Magers, Kathy Van Meter, Veda Wood, and Joyce Sumner brought Claudia Bridges, Jackie Porter and Eleanor Jensen.

DeWayne Jackson brought the message at the Lyle Church on Sunday. His daughter and son-in-law came with him, which always brings extra blessings.

We are sorry to hear of the death of Lora Linn (Ward) Leichliter. The family has our sympathy.

Charlie and Judy Easton are staying with friends while they look for a place to move. People were so good to take their furniture and belongings for a safekeeping, so there will be a "great roundup" when the time comes.

Toots Magers, Joyce Sumner and Veda Wood had potluck at the Educational building, which was a farewell dinner for the minister, Reverend Gilstrap.

Margaret "Toots" Magers, Joyce Sumner and Kathy Van Meter played pinochle with Oberlin senior citizens on Monday, June 2. The same group sewed at Lyle on Tuesday.

Toots went to Quinter on Sunday and visited with Judy and Charlie Easton, J.T., and Denise Guy and Kendra. They are still house hunting.

June Jolly's fingers are healing, although more painful than they were at first.

Veda Wood was visited by Mariah and Garrett Bader, Grant Slater, and Aubrey High several times through the week. Their parents, Tielia and Anthony High, visited and mowed on Thursday. Veda had a visit from her sister Bonnie's friend, Ralph Crim, and we had lunch at the Cardinal Bar and Grill. He hears from Bonnie and Dena occasionally, and we are both concerned about her welfare.

John Paulson spoke at the Lyle Church on Sunday. He and his wife, Lisa, brought several visitors from the Oberlin Good Samaritan Center. We are thankful for all visitors.

Joyce Sumner took twenty quilts to Norton, which the Lyle women had made, to be sent to the wounded men in Iraq.

Dwight Wood continues to do well, (or in Teresa's report, "Great!") on his home dialysis. One real accomplishment was that he walked seven blocks to their home after a doctor's appointment. The arm that was bothering him has improved enough for him to play the guitar again.

"Medicine for America"
"God Rules Over Nations"

Psalms 22:28 says, "for dominion belongs to the LORD and He rules over the nations." The King James Bibles says, "...He is the governor among nations."

God can restore our Supreme Court system to making decisions like the one made in 1892, "Our laws and our institution must necessarily be based upon and embody the teaching of the Redeemer of mankind. It is impossible that it should be otherwise; and in this sense and to this extent our civilization and institutions are emphatically Christian. This is a religious people. This is historically true. From the discovery of this continent to the present hour, there is a single voice making affirmation. We find everywhere a clear recognition of the same truth. These, and many other matters which might be noticed, add a volume of unofficial utterance that this is a Christian nation." (Justice Brewer delivered the opinion of the court on February 29, 1892) In the late 1950's the former Chief Justice Earl Warren, addressing the annual prayer breakfast of the International Council of Christian Leadership said, "I believe no one can read the history of our country without realizing that the Good Book [the Bible] and the spirit of the Savior [Jesus Christ] have from the beginning been our guiding geniuses. Whether we look to the first Charter of Virginia or to the Charter of New England or to the Charter of Massachusetts Bay or to the Foundational Orders of Connecticut, the same objective is present: A Christian land governed by Christian Principles. I believe the entire Bill of rights came into being because of the knowledge our forefathers had of the Bible and their belief in it: freedom of belief, of expression, of assembly, of petition, the dignity of the individual, the sanctity of the home, equal justice under the law, and the reservation of powers to the people. I like to believe we are living today in the spirit of the Christian religion."

Psalms 33:12 says, "Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD, the people He chose for His inheritance."

Medicine for America is God's Rule!
